Wyre

Member Code of Conduct

Introduction

One of the principles of the U3A is that Members promote the values of lifelong learning and the positive attributes of belonging to a U3A. Members of Wyre U3A are expected to conduct themselves in line with such values.

Code of Conduct

- Members are expected to know, follow and promote the Principles of the U3A Movement at every opportunity.
- Members must always act in the best interests of Wyre U3A and the U3A Movement, strive to uphold its reputation and never do anything which could bring their own, another U3A or the U3A Movement into disrepute or expose it to undue risk.
- Members are expected to use Wyre U3A's resources responsibly and only to further its stated charitable objects and purposes.
- Members are expected to reflect the current organisational policy of Wyre U3A, regardless of whether it conflicts with their personal views.
- Members are expected to abide by Wyre U3A's procedures and practices.
- Members are expected to treat each other with dignity and respect at all times.

Disciplinary Action

Failure to comply with the Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action including suspension or cessation of membership of Wyre U3A.
