A music quiz for people of a certain age. (Bicester U3A)

I was wallowing in Sixties stuff when I realized that, when singing along, remembering the second line of the song was really difficult for me. I wondered how difficult it would be for the music buffs out there.

The quiz is best taken with a bottle of red wine and a box of maltesers. Warm up with a glass of red wine and handful of maltesers and then you can start – second glass in hand. So, I'll give you the first line of the song. You have to provide the song title, the artist (extra points for the original artist), and very importantly, the second line of the song.

Wallowing in Sixties music while checking your answers on Youtube is highly recommended.
