“The Origin & Work of the Commonwealth War Graves”

Talk by Mark Bailey
Ashburton Town Hall

This illustrated talk tells the story of the Commonwealth War Graves Commission and its work commemorating the Commonwealth war dead of the First and Second World Wars in perpetuity.

The talk also describes how the Commission's website may be used to find and research the many war graves to be found in Devon's cemeteries and churchyards.

Non-members are welcome to attend our talks, £4 payable on the door which includes Tea, Percolated Coffee & biscuits from 2.15 pm
