Membership information will be reviewed and consent refreshed annually or when policy is changed.

Data protection principles:

The General Data Protection Regulation identifies 8 data protection principles.

Principle 1 - Personal data shall be processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner.

Principle 2 - Personal data can only be collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes and not further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes.

Principle 3 - The collection of personal data must be adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary compared to the purpose(s) data is collected for.

Principle 4 – Personal data held should be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date. Every reasonable step must be taken to ensure that personal data that are inaccurate are erased or rectified without delay.

Principle 5 – Personal data which is kept in a form which permits identification of individuals shall not be kept for longer than is necessary.

Principle 6 - Personal data must be processed in accordance with the individuals' rights.

Principle 7 - Personal data must be processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data, including protection against unauthorized or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage, using appropriate technical or organizational measures.

Principle 8 - Personal data cannot be transferred to a country or territory outside the European Union unless that country or territory ensures an adequate level of protection for the rights and freedoms of individuals in relation to the processing of personal data.

Lawful, fair and transparent data processing:

ASHINGTON AND DISTRICT U3A requests personal information from potential members and members for the purpose of sending communications about their involvement with ASHINGTON AND DISTRICT U3A. The forms used to request personal information will contain a 'privacy statement' (Refer to the Membership Application Form) informing potential members and members as to why the information is being requested and what the information will be used for.

Members will be asked to provide consent for their data to be held and a record of this consent along with member information will be securely held.

ASHINGTON AND DISTRICT U3A members will be informed that they can, at any time, remove their consent and will be informed as to who to contact should they wish to do so.

Once an ASHINGTON AND DISTRICT U3A member requests not to receive certain communications this will be acted upon promptly and the member will be informed as to when the action has been taken.

Subject Access Request

Representatives of member ASHINGTON AND DISTRICT U3A are entitled to request access to the information that is held by ASHINGTON AND DISTRICT U3A.

The request needs to be received in the form of a written request to the committee.

On receipt of the request, it will be formally acknowledged and dealt with within 14 days unless there are exceptional circumstances as to why the request cannot be granted.

ASHINGTON AND DISTRICT U3A will provide a written response detailing all information held on the member.

A record shall be kept of the date of the request and the date of the response.

Data Breach Notification

Were a data breach to occur action shall be taken to minimise the harm by ensuring all committee members are aware that a breach had taken place and how the breach had occurred.

The committee shall then seek to rectify the cause of the breach as soon as possible to prevent any further breaches.

The Chair of ASHINGTON AND DISTRICT U3A shall contact National Office within 24 hours of the breach occurring to notify of the breach.

A discussion would take place between the Chair and National Office as to the seriousness of the breach, action to be taken and, where necessary, the Information Commissioner's Office would be notified. The committee shall also contact the relevant Ashington and District U3A members to inform them of the data breach and actions taken to resolve the breach.

If a representative of a member ASHINGTON AND DISTRICT U3A member contacts ASHINGTON AND DISTRICT U3A to say that they feel that there has been a breach by ASHINGTON AND DISTRICT U3A, a committee member will ask the member to provide an outline of their concerns.

If the initial contact is by telephone, the committee member will ask the representative of the ASHINGTON AND DISTRICT U3A member to follow this up by detailing their concern in writing.

The concern will then be investigated by members of the committee who are not in any way implicated in the breach. Where the committee needs support or if the breach is serious, they should notify National Office.

The ASHINGTON AND DISTRICT U3A member should also be informed that they can report their concerns to National Office if they don't feel satisfied with the response.

Breach matters will be subject to a full investigation, records will be kept and all those involved notified of the outcome.
