

Manchester City Scene report.

Thank you, Roger for another successful caravan trip. There's no need to waste time looking for the Information Centre, Roger IS the Information Centre! The hotel was only five minutes from the station and the Manchester transport system is wonderful, with lots of free buses.

Sylvia Warren and I explored art galleries, museums and libraries and there were plenty of opportunities to "shop till you drop". We walked through China Town and the Gay Village and went out to Salford Quays, however you may not find us in another Northern Soul club anytime soon (ask someone who went !). It really was a packed visit, with good company, good weather mostly and something for everyone to do whatever their interests. I loved Manchester and look forward to Cambridge.

Gill Blacksell.
