Word From the Chair

Welcome to all members new and old.

The festive season is nearly upon us. I can't seem to get my head round it. I am still thinking it is months away.

We have our Christmas social to look forward to on Saturday 3rd December and our Christmas meeting Wednesday 21st December. This will be AWAKE's answer to Britain's got talent. If you can sing, play a musical instrument or have any other talent please let me know and I will add you to the list of performers. Don't leave it too late.

I was thinking in the New Year that we could give Covid a kick up the butt and try to refresh our u3a with some new groups and new ideas.

My time as Chair ends in June and it would be nice to be able to get more people involved with groups and activities before I finish. The bench is still on going and hopefully we will get an answer soon when the councils can agree on whose "hat" it comes under. I would like to thank all the people who have helped this year with our different events and hope that they will continue to do so in the future.

I will finish by wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Take care, keep warm and safe and I will see you again soon
Sue

40th Anniversary of u3a in the UK

The celebration picnic held at Willerby Methodist was a resounding success with over 100 members attending a fun, music and refreshment filled afternoon.

Centenary Celebration of the Willerby & Kirk Ella Parish Institute

The special celebration to recognise 100 hundred years since the Willerby Parish Institute building was given by Sir Henry Samman of Willerby Manor to the residents of Willerby & Kirk Ella was also a resounding success, the Blue Plaque was unveiled by the Chair of the East Riding of Yorkshire County Council and his Consort, paintings were also unveiled, a celebration cake was cut and the Town Crier ran the proceedings. Francis Davies, as ever gave a very informative illustrated talk on the history of the building and Sir Henry and many u3a members were present to help with the proceedings and display the u3a in general and particularly the groups who meet in the Institute. A big thanks to all who were involved in making this a memorable day in the Willerby village life. Around 100 people attended the event.

Interest Group News

Group Co-ordinator

I'm afraid I have nothing to report on new groups. Either people are not interested in starting new groups or do not want to suggest different ideas. This is all part of the u3a, passing your knowledge on to others and helping to keep our AWAKE u3a fresh, with new ideas.

If you would like to start a new group you would not be on your own there is plenty of help and advice.

Give me a ring for information.

Badminton

We meet at the Badminton Centre (part of the Hull and East Riding Sports Club) in Chanterlands Avenue each Friday from 2 to 3.30 and include members from Awake/Cottingham u3as.

This week we had 12 players on court and would welcome more as there are 4 courts available. We're a friendly group and play doubles/mixed doubles. Why not come along and try a couple of sessions? For further information contact Ann Berriman on 650676

Book Groups

There are two books to review this time that both provided a good read. The first was 'The Late Train to Gypsy Hill' by our local ex-MP, Alan Johnson. It's his first novel and (as long as you can deal with the foreign names) involves a mysterious young woman, a poisoning and a pursuit by the London Metropolitan Police and the Russian Mafia. Well worth reading. The second book, 'The Painter' by Will Davenport tells a tale of a supposed fleeing by the artist Rembrandt to Hull where he meets Andrew Marvel and is involved in an art v verse challenge around a local lady (there is some evidence of the visit in Hull Archives). An intertwined story tells of a present-day ancestor of this lady's family revisiting the old family home and finding links to the Rembrandt/Marvel situation. An excellent read which left us all wanting to go and find out more about Andrew Marvel. If you're interested in joining one of the book groups give me a ring (Chris Watson – 07530 256560) and I can answer any queries you may have.

Bridge Group

The bridge group meets every second and third Wednesday of the month at The Willerby Library. Main Street. Willerby from 2pm to 4pm. Next meeting 9th November. Players and Beginners welcome. Ring Anita. 657494.

'Caravan' AWAKE Trips Group

The trips and visits programme for ALL members.

The day trip to Railway Centre with Meadowhall and theatre options in November will not run. Numbers too low for a coach hire.

However..... my next plan, available to all members is a EUROPE GRAND TOUR

My wife and I have lifetime experience of independent world travel which we are happy to share in the spirit of U3A. This will be the third overseas trip I have led with AWAKE. Not lost anybody yet. We travel as a group of friends with each person responsible for their actions. A group of 12ish travel by train/ferry to maybe 6 countries. No flying. We will use day and sleeper trains to make a circular journey. Mountains, forests, cities along scenic routes. I will plan the pace to suit we sophisticated mature people who are very good at travelling light, packing tight and knowing what time it is. Train travel in Europe is well coordinated and considerably cheaper than UK. The railway systems are national and international unlike our fragmented nonsense with shareholders.

Here are some ideas for a six to eight day trip. This is food for thought not a plan. Eurostar to Brussels or Paris, or Ferry to Holland. Night train to Berlin/Potsdam for maybe two nights. On to Warsaw or Prague then Vienna. Maybe two nights then sleeper to Koln. Or one night and to Budapest. Or Vienna to Zurich a very scenic day journey. Then Lausanne (a rail hub) then south to link with a mountain railway via the Chamonix valley to St Gervais with connections to Lyon and Paris. two more night stops in there somewhere.

OR.. Amsterdam or Brussels to Hamburg then Copenhagen recently rail connected. Cross the bridge to Sweden (film The Bridge!) maybe a Baltic ferry return to Poland and train connection to Warsaw, or back via Hamburg.

OR .. Eurostar Paris/Lille and south to Bordeaux, Biarritz maybe overnight St Sebastian, then central Spain. Return via Barcelona, Nimes, then the very scenic route through Massif

Central back to Paris. This will be April/May, too hot in June. Costings...very rough. Eurostar £78 p.p. return. Ferry more. A full day train travel £100. Modest hotels per room (for 2) from £80. Look at Booking .com. Grub is what you choose to make of it. The sleeper train system is growing in Europe. Couchettes for 4 or 2.

Sooo something to think about. If you are even vaguely interested please call me 657105 to ask questions, consider your wish list from all the above or share your ideas. I will make a final plan by February based on my experience and your ideas. No obligation until March when tickets will be booked .

This has yet to be approved by the AWAKE committee.

Computer group

The computer club is about much more than just computers. We meet at The Beech Tree public house on South Ella Way from 11.00 - 13.00 every 2nd and 4th Wednesday of the month, and each meeting we have 2 or 3 resident 'experts' willing to help and advise on individual problems. This Group is open to all Awake members – you don't have to be a member of the Group in order to make use of it. If you have an IT problem, please just drop into one of our regular meetings for help.

Some of our regular members work quietly on their own projects, knowing that help is at hand if needed. Others just call in when they have a specific problem, and many simply enjoy the coffee and the friendly chatter.

Together, we try to make sense of today's new technology, including laptops, tablets, ipad's, smart phones and even the older 'not so smart' phones. We don't take these things too seriously – our meetings are intended to be light-hearted and an enjoyable experience for all. So even if you are completely new to computers or mobile phones, and simply want to learn how to send an email or a WhatsApp message, do come along and join us for what is essentially a social occasion with morning coffee – and a bit of 'new technology' support included if you need it.

We are hoping to decide what the group would like to see or tackle during 2023 so come with ideas and join our group. We usually meet on the 3rd Monday of the month at Willerby Methodist church from 2 – 4pm. Our next meetings are 21 November and 19 December where we are hoping to pool ideas on what we would like to create and tackle and set the dates for 2023

Everyone is welcome to this friendly group who have a variety of skills from beginner to more experienced in the many crafts. Looking forward to seeing you all at our next session.

Darts, Dominoes & Card Group

Numbers have increased at our old venue in the Willerby Institute's front room. Please feel free to visit the group and try it out. The group meets every other Tuesday, 7 – 9 and the next dates are November 29th then December 13th & 20th adjacent weeks because of Christmas. Any questions please contact Les Holmes (07530 103256).

Family History Group

The Family History Group is up and running again, albeit with a new leader, a new venue and a new date and time. We now meet at The Beech Tree public house on South Ella Way from 11.00 - 13.00 every 2nd and 4th Wednesday of the month. We are a small friendly Group, each working on our own projects, but sharing research hints, tips and pointers with other members.

New members are welcome, so if you have an interest in Family History, either as a beginner or an expert, do come along and join us. You may prefer to work quietly on your own, or you may wish to discuss your family tree problems with other members over a cup of coffee - either way, you will be made very welcome.

Next year's programme is now at the planning stage and will be published at our December meeting. Our favourite speakers will be back with some new talks and there will also be some new faces in 2023.

The Willerby Heritage Trail devised by members of this group has been enthusiastically received by our local community. The first print run of the booklet describing the Trail has now sold out! However, if you haven't managed to procure your copy yet, don't worry, a second print run is on its way! The two information boards - at Willerby Square and Main Street/Well Lane - are now in place, providing further interest. The booklet (£4.50) containing a map and full details of the Trail is available from Willerby Newsagents, Willerby Post Office and Willerby Library and, of course, at our monthly meetings. A free leaflet is also available with a map and brief descriptions of points of interest along the route.

Play Reading

The September play-reading was the comedy Habeas Corpus by Alan Bennett. This farce was written in 1973 and was very much a play of its time. The cast included a lecherous GP, his flat-chested spinster sister, his hypochondriac son and a fitter from an artificial bra manufacturer. There were mistaken identities and situations which led to lots of laughter during the reading and it was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone.

Quizzing group

As our numbers continue to increase, we are now using a speaker/microphone arrangement to help hearing the questions wherever you are in the room. It provided a vast improvement when we used it for the first time and as usual our Quiz Masters/Mistresses are providing great!! Quizzes (even if they get a few challenges to their answers). Future dates for the next couple of months are: Thursdays –November 10th & 24th and December 8th. Our Christmas Quiz, including free raffle will be on December 22nd. If you fancy turning up and 'having a go' give me a ring (Chris Watson, 07530 256560) and you'll be more than welcome. You don't need to be in a team to come as these are chosen each week, so anybody on their own can just arrive.

Singing for Fun

Do you enjoy singing but don't think you can sing? We are the group for you. When we all get together, we have a lot of fun with songs and it is surprising what it sounds like. Good!

We meet every other Tuesday evening at the Anlaby Village Hall 6.30-8pm. It's as good as exercise. We recently entered the older people's partnership talent competition at the Cottingham Civic Hall and finished runner up winning a whole bottle of wine to share! We are also due to sing at Cassandra House, Cottingham in the near future.

If you are interested give me a ring.

For December we're going back to Burton Agnes for their Christmas Experience. Anybody who wasn't at the meeting but would like to go, can you get in touch with me asap. Also, I took 'expressions of interest' for our Summer Trip down to Warwickshire so if you would like adding to the list or would like more information please let me know - (Chris Watson) on 07530 256560.

Sunshine Strummers

The Sunshine Strummers have recently moved to a new Monday afternoon venue at Men in Sheds in First Lane Anlaby, and we are settling in well as we begin to work on our new Christmas Set List. We are all looking forward to bringing out our Christmas Jumpers and colourful festive Hawaiian shirts for our many performances during late November and December. Our annual Christmas lunch is also already booked at the Beech Tree in Kirk Ella.

Our sea and river inspired songs have been well received at recent performances and it was a great honour to be invited to play again during the Celebration of People Older Week at both Cottingham Civic Hall and Hessle Town Hall. Our latest theme for Monday uke sessions has been 'Around the World in 80 days', featuring songs with a city or country in the title. We've been to Amsterdam, Itchycoo Park, Mull of Kintyre, China and Scarborough Fair all in one afternoon. Keep on Strumming!

Autumn Leaves

Summer is finally over, autumn is really here,
Leaves are falling swiftly, winter is getting near.
Pinks, golds and russets, rich colours of the leaves,
Trees will soon be standing bare like skeletons, if you please.
Hold this tapestry of colour in your mind's eye,
We sometimes take nature for granted, both you and I.
Throughout the summer they have shown their best,
But are now shedding leaves for their winter rest.

Like snowflakes they silently fall to the ground,
Then strong winds will blow and make them dance around.
Swirling and whirling up in the air,
They fly around like children without a care.
Rain comes along and makes the leaves turn brown,
All slimy and slippery to make us fall down.
Autumn is now over, the trees are all bare,
Morning dew webs hang where leaves once were.
Once winter is over we shall soon be able to see,
Buds breaking open on our favourite tree.
