

Bearsden and Milngavie u3a

CODE OF CONDUCT

Bearsden and Milngavie (BaM) u3a members are expected to conduct themselves within the movement's "guiding principles". They are also expected to treat each other with dignity and respect.

This Code of Conduct clarifies the standard of behaviour expected as a member of BaM u3a:

- Members are expected to know, follow and promote the Principles of the u3a Movement at every opportunity.
- Members must always act in the best interests of BaM u3a and the u3a Movement, strive to uphold its reputation and never do anything which could bring BaM u3a or the u3a Movement into disrepute or expose it to undue risk.
- Members are expected to use BaM u3a's resources responsibly and only to further its stated objects and purposes.
- Members are expected to reflect the current organisational policy of BaM u3a, regardless of whether it conflicts with their personal views.
- Members are expected to abide by all BaM u3a's procedures and practices.
- Members are expected to treat each other with dignity and respect at all times.

A member who breaches the Code of Conduct may be subject to the provisions of the BaM u3a Disciplinary Procedure.
