

KEEP SMILING No. 17

Me after Day 41 in the 2nd Lockdown screaming at the TV:

"For Goodness Sake, Just Wear The Bloody Mask, Pretend It's Halloween."

The Spread of COVID-19 Is Based On Two Factors:

1. How Dense The Population is
2. How Dense The Population is

I'm having a serious vision problem. I can't see me doing anything at all today.

Right about now, many parents are going to discover the teacher wasn't the problem.

LOCKDOWN
BECAUSE WE WERENT
ALL
ALREADY

Everyone PLEASE be careful because people are going crazy from being locked down at home! I was just talking about this with the microwave and the toaster while drinking my Pepsi, and we all agreed that things are getting bad. I didn't mention any of this to the washing machine, because she puts a different spin on EVERYTHING!! Certainly couldn't share with the fridge, cause he's been acting cold and distant and adopted a Frigidaire! In the end, the iron straightened me out! She said the situation isn't all that pressing and all the wrinkles will soon get ironed out! The vacuum, however, was very unsympathetic and told me to just suck it up! But the fan was VERY optimistic and gave me hope that it will all blow over soon! The toilet looked a bit flushed but didn't say anything when I asked its opinion, but the front door said I was becoming unhinged, and the doorknob told me to get a grip!! You can just about guess what the curtains told me: they told me to "pull myself together!" We will survive!! 😊 😊 😊

A senior citizen drove his brand new Maserati out of the dealership. Taking off down the road, he floored it to 80 mph, enjoying the wind blowing through what little grey hair he had left. Amazing, he thought as he flew up the M1 pushing up his speed to 90 m.p.h.. Looking in his rear view mirror, he saw a police car behind him, lights flashing and sirens blaring. He floored it to 100 mph, then 110, then 120. Suddenly he thought, What am I doing? I'm too old for this, and pulled over to await the motorway police car.

Pulling in behind him, the policeman walked up to the Maserati, looked at his watch, and said, "Sir, my shift ends in 30 minutes. Today is Friday. If you can give me a reason for speeding that I've never heard before, I'll let you go." The old gentleman paused. Then he said, "Years ago, my wife ran off with a policeman. I thought you were bringing her back." "Have a good day, sir," replied the policeman.

A man is stranded on a desert island all alone for ten years. One day he sees a speck on the horizon. He thinks to himself: "It's not a ship." The speck gets a little closer and he thinks: "It's not a boat." The speck gets even closer and he thinks: "It's not a raft." Then, out of the surf comes this gorgeous blonde woman wearing a wet suit. She comes up to the guy and she says: "How long has it been since you've had a cigarette?" "Ten years!" he says.

She reaches over, unzips the waterproof pocket on her left sleeve and pulls out a pack of fresh cigarettes. He takes one, lights it, takes a long drag and says: "Man, oh man! Is that good!" Then she asked: "How long has it been since you've had a drink of whiskey?" He replies: "Ten years!" She reaches over, unzips her waterproof pocket on the right, pulls out a flask and gives it to him. He takes a long swig and says: "Wow! That's fantastic!" Then she starts unzipping this long zipper that runs down the front of her wet suit: "Oh, Sweet Jesus! Don't tell me you've got golf clubs in there?

too."

A man entered a pet shop wanting to buy a parrot. The shop owner pointed out three identical parrots on a perch and said: "The parrot to the left costs £500." "Why does that parrot cost so much?" the man wondered. The owner replied: "Well, it knows how to use a computer." The man asked about the next parrot on the perch. "That one costs £1,000 because it can do everything the other parrot can do, plus it knows how to use the online operating system." Naturally, the startled customer asked about the third parrot. "That one costs £2,000." "And what does that one do?" the man asked. The owner replied: "I've never seen him do a thing, but the other two call him sir.

Three prisoners are on death row and are about to be executed. They are asked what they wish to have for their last meal. One man asks for pepperoni pizza, which he is served and then taken away. The next man requests a filet mignon, which he is served and also taken away. The last man requests a plate of strawberries. The guards are surprised and reply: "Strawberries?" "Yes, strawberries." "But they are out of season!" "I'll wait..."

A truck driver was driving along on the highway. He passed a sign that said: "Low bridge ahead." Before he knew it, the bridge was right ahead of him and he could not avoid getting stuck underneath it. Cars were backed up for miles. Finally, a police car pulled up. The officer got out of his car and walked around to the truck driver, put his hands on his hips and said: "Got stuck did you?" The gutsy truck driver said: "No officer, I was delivering this bridge and ran out of road

Johnny and Danny were at the local bar enjoying a beer when they decided to get in on the weekly charity raffle. They bought five tickets each. The following week, when the raffle was drawn, both had won a prize. Danny won first prize, which was a year's supply of gourmet spaghetti sauce and extra-long spaghetti. Johnny won the sixth prize, which was a toilet brush. About a week or so had passed when the men met back at the bar for a couple of drinks. Johnny asked Danny how he liked his prize, to which Danny replied, "Great, I love spaghetti! How about you? How's that toilet brush?" Not so good," replied Johnny . "I think I'll go back to paper.

WHAT DO RETIRED PEOPLE DO EACH DAY?

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qXgM7-GYpfQ>

One minute you're young and fun. And the next, you're turning down the stereo in your car to see better.

Never Ever Underestimate The Power Of Stupid.

Maybe if we tell people the brain is an app, they'll start using it.

From Monday postmen will be working from home. They will read all your letters and ring you if it's anything important.

Part 2 OF YOU MAY BE GETTING OLD IF YOU

Hear people say you are gullible... and you believe them. Don't like driving at night. Find everything hurts and what doesn't hurt doesn't work. Sing along with all your favourite songs in a lift. Find your joints are more accurate than the weatherman's. Look at the obituary pages to check if you are still alive.	Have a party and the people next door don't even notice. Prefer a night in with a board game, than a night out. Take a keen interest in The Antiques Road Show. Say "It wasn't like that when I was young." Get your head together and your body starts falling apart. Feel tipsy after one glass of wine.

SOME BETTER NEWS... ESPECIALLY DARK CHOCOLATE!

It is claimed that elderly people's brains are slower because they have stored up more information and the human brain works slower in old age, as it has to process a lifetime of stored-up information to recall simple facts. Instead of being weak - older brains are in fact more powerful. A computer was programmed to learn new words and commands on a daily basis by 'reading' - much like a human would learn. The researchers said cognitive tests conducted on computers which hadn't read much, were comparable to the brains of a young adult - but those that read more were more like an elderly person's. The 'older' computer was certainly slower, but only because its database had grown and it was having to process more information. They said their findings also explain why older people are often more forgetful.'

More good news is that another survey suggests that 'Brain Foods' may help boost cerebral stamina and not only the conventional items such as Blueberries, Salmon, and Almonds, but other less known food items have been found to produce similar brain-augmenting benefits. These are: Green Tea, Avocados, Soybeans, Sweet Potatoes and (hurrah!) Dark Chocolate. Although all foods should be consumed in moderation, these studies give you a slight reason to eliminate some guilt when indulging in "Fatty" Avocados, "Starchy" Sweet Potatoes, or "Sugary" Dark Chocolates. After all, not only will they satisfy your hungry tummy, but they may also provide you with that mental punch to improve cognitive performance. So take off the wrapper of that dark chocolate bar and start celebrating its potential to power your brain.
