

Below is our programme for 2024 which I hope will reveal more discoveries of our local area and history.

Monday 26 February - A tour of the historic pubs of Norwich with Paul Dickson. £6 charge for walk plus optional £3 per head for refreshments at the Maids Head hotel

Monday 25 March - Ashby to the GOLDEN CHURCH, Lound. Visit to sculpture studio of Jason Parr for refreshments at Ashby

Monday 22 April - The ancient and picturesque village of Kelsale with Ivan Crane, group member

Monday 20 May - Cove Hithe church and Benacre Broad. Amazing fossils on display and can search for some. Presentations from Alva O'Malley and Simon Raven

Monday 24 June - Dunwich Heath. A walk and illustrated talk with National Trust history volunteer Richard Syme. refreshments at the 12 Lost Churches restaurant. Donation to national Trust.

Monday 22 July- Self guided visits and walk to the two Leiston Abbeys. Short drive from substantial ruins at Leiston to the Eels Foot pub in Eastbridge, then walk to old original Abbey.

Monday 19 August - A ramble around the Bungay common area in the footsteps of Lillias Rider Haggard with samples of her writings of the area. Chris Reeve will lead.

Monday 23 September - Orwell in Southwold. Group members Joan and Andrew Holland will lead this walk

Monday 28 October - A new Beccles blue plaque walk with local historian and writer, Barry Darch. Refreshments at the Waveney House hotel.

Please note that the May and August walks will be the 3rd Monday and not the 4th owing to bank holidays.

Details of our February walk will be sent nearer the time.

Very much looking forward to seeing you all again.