

Lower Heyford Walk – Tuesday, 12th September

On a lovely sunny day nine of us set out from The Bell Inn at Lower Heyford, heading towards the Oxford Canal via the road bridge onto the towpath. It was a very pleasant walk alongside the canal and the many moored narrow boats, making our way to Allens Lock.

After a short stop to see the boats negotiating the lock we crossed over the bridge and up into Upper Heyford, then open countryside back down into Lower Heyford, where we all enjoyed lunch at The Bell Inn.
