

Oxford Walk – Tuesday 8th August

This month's walk was organised by Jeffrey & Patricia Brindle and ten hardy walkers took the Park & Ride to Oxford on a very wet morning. On leaving the bus at Broad Street we walked past various landmark buildings, including colleges, the Sheldonian Theatre, Bodleian Library, Radcliffe Camera and the 'Bridge of Sighs'. We passed the Botanical Gardens, along the bank of the River Cherwell and Christchurch Meadow on our right. We continued on, passing Christchurch College, along the Thames towpath, crossing a footbridge, past Osney Lock to reach the Punter pub for lunch, and then back to Bicester on the Park & Ride. Thanks to Jeffrey and Patricia for providing detailed information on the walk and various landmarks etc. Everyone agreed it was an enjoyable walk in spite of the weather and would like to do it again on a sunny day!
