

Thrupp Walk - Tuesday, 11th October 2017

Nine of us started our walk from the Jolly Boatman on an overcast morning, which soon brightened into a very pleasant day. We walked alongside the canal to Thrupp village and then on to Shipton on Cherwell, stopping off to look inside the church and admire the views before crossing the canal and going up to the ruins of Hampton Gay manor and St Giles church. Returning to the canal at Shipton we passed many narrowboats on our way back to Thrupp village and the Jolly Boatman, where seven of us stayed for an enjoyable lunch.
