

LOCAL THEATRE GROUP

STOP PRESS

A number of interesting local theatre shows have been found that were too late to be included in the March newsletter and as the show dates are in March and April with booking needing to be confirmed and paid for either before or very shortly after the next newsletter is published.

To avoid disappointment or a last minute rush this list is being published on the web site.

If you are interested in attending any of these productions please contact Janet without delay to enable steps to be taken to obtain the best prices [where possible] for group bookings. Note that there is a choice of shows on the 21 April.

Performance Medieval Miracles – Maldon Town Hall

Date Friday 14 April @ 7.30pm March

Tickets £15.00 individually or £10.00 for a group of 8 plus

Adapted and translated by Ivan Cutting and Tony Ramsay

Touring East Anglia 16th March - 20th May

Heaven is empty and Hell is full – what is God to do? Lower the bar? The answer comes in The Trials of Mary & Joseph, a series of mystery plays telling the Nativity story – but not as you know it. The search for an Immaculate Conception hits a doubting husband, local opposition and scandal, and some sceptical midwives, until some starry-eyed shepherds gets this well-known story back on track.

“East Anglia was the Broadway or West End of the 15th Century English theatre” once said a stage historian. With live music, comic twists and a sense of the ridiculous, one of the biggest hits is brought right up to date this spring.

The UK's leading live music tribute to George Harrison, performing his best-loved hits from The Beatles, his solo career and The Traveling Wilburys.

Here comes the perfect tribute to a Beatles legend in the year that celebrates George's 80th Birthday!

After the Liverpoolian four-piece called time on Beatlemania Harrison, who died in 2001, enjoyed a successful solo career, releasing 12 studio albums, including the classic triple album All Things Must Pass, Living In The Material World, Cloud Nine and Brainwashed.

He also formed the supergroup The Traveling Wilburys with Bob Dylan, Jeff Lynne, Roy Orbison and Tom Petty.

During this show, these talented musicians perform some of George Harrison's best-known tracks, including My Sweet Lord, Got My Mind Set On You, Give Me Love, What Is Life, If I Needed Someone, Something, While My Guitar Gently Weeps, Here Comes The Sun, Handle With Care, All Things Must Pass, Blow Away, End Of The Line, Cheer Down, and many more!
