

July 2021: Silk Painting

In July a large group of Crafters met to revisit one of Group's favourite Crafts: silk painting. For one reason or another, we hadn't done silk painting for three years so there were quite a few who had never encountered this most relaxing form of painting. As always, it was a hit! We turned our silk paintings into greetings cards - how lucky the recipients of these lovely cards will be!

