Burton Joyce & District U3A Newslines

Issue 03.04 | April 2021

Welcome to the April edition of Newslines,

Risky Business

Each day I peruse the government website for the latest figures. How many cases? How many tests? What's the latest rate in Gedling? Why is it so high in East Bridgford?..... etc.....etc.

It seems I've become obsessed with data and graphs like never before. I certainly never looked up the number of folk being admitted to hospital, or more worryingly the number of excess deaths in the East Midlands. All of this, I think, is me seeking hope and reassurance that things are improving. So that I can escape and DO things. I'm sure many people are the same as me.

But I wonder what will we actually do when we're allowed. Will we be brave enough to go back to the things we did before? Will there ever be a queue for the 0930 bus to town? Will two people ever go into Boots at the same time? Will anyone ever give someone a lift to the shops again? I think it's going to take a lot to get used to these sorts of things again. I've had this vision that in June I'll go for a walk along the river to find hundreds of people still spaced out on the grass and nobody at all in the Nelson.

And this could be a problem for our U3A groups. We want to get things moving again but we also want everyone to feel comfortable, especially at first. Meeting in the way and the numbers we did before is going to be difficult for some. So it's important that each group takes account of everyone's views and that people are able to return to activities in the best way for them.

For me, deciding what to do means trying to ignore all the media hype and make an attempt to reach an independent view on what the risks of doing something actually are. And comparing this to the risks that I have faced all of my life. But others will think differently I'm sure and will want more reassurance before meeting indoors for example. I'm sure though that given a fair wind we can edge all groups back into activity before too long.

Anything you have for next month should be e-mailed to bj3anewsline@outlook.com to arrive no later than 5:00 p.m. Tuesday 27th April 2021. All items received will be acknowledged by e-mail.

Colin Simm.

Chairman's Message

I hope all members entitled to the Covid-19 vaccinations have had their first or second vaccinations. Satisfying Step 1 of the Government's Roadmap on 29th March, with the relaxation of some restrictions, coupled with sunshine and warmer spring weather at that time for a few days, all generates a feel-good factor and is good for everyone's morale and well-being too.

Well done to all groups who are meeting by Zoom, particularly to the walking groups who organised walks which took place after 29th March in groups of up to 6 to accord with the new limitations. I know how much they enjoyed meeting together again and socialising and encourage other groups who can meet outside with a maximum of 6 members, or can divide into groups of 6, to do so.

We all hope Step 2 of the Roadmap will come to fruition on 12th April with a further relaxation of restrictions. This of course relies upon everyone to continue complying with strict social distancing and other restrictions in force up to and after that date. Noticeably we are all keen to re-activate our monthly meetings as a U3A in the Village Hall. In the meantime do join in the monthly Zoom meetings at which we have had, and continue to have, excellent speakers with interesting topics.

Similarly, the weekly Thursday Mirthy Talks continue to be popular with interesting and varying topics. Again I encourage you to give them a try if you have not done so and are unfamiliar with them. Details of this month's talks appear in this Newsline

Well done to Caroline Roberts, our Membership Secretary, who is forming another walking group, meeting on the first and third Friday each month, commencing on Friday 16th April, intending to cover between 4 and 6 miles in and around Burton Joyce, or a little further afield. It is amazing just how different the countryside looks when walking in it, and how much more there is to see, rather than observing from a car or coach. If you are interested please email Caroline. She will be pleased to hear from you. Even better weather is coming as we go from April to May, making an excursion on foot more attractive and enjoyable. Full details are set out in the Groups section on page 10.

It is so easy to feel the Covid restrictions do not apply or can personally be relaxed when changed under the Roadmap. Please don't forget that despite a relaxation of the restrictions, we must still obey the law and that the guidance of "Hands-Face-Space" and "Letting Fresh Air In" still applies. Stay safe and keep well.

- Alwyn.

Meetings Programme and Group Activities

Monthly Speaker Meetings

We are continuing to hold our monthly meetings 1:45 p.m. on the second Tuesday of the month. They will be delivered via the video conferencing service Zoom. A link to the Zoom meetings will be emailed to members the preceding day along with appropriate instructions.

13 April - "The Silent Epidemic" - Professor Opinder Sahota MB, ChB, FRCP, DM, FHEA - Professor in Ortho-Geriatric Medicine and Consultant Physician. Professor Sahota will provide an update on new innovations to treat osteoporosis.

11 May - "The White Mouse" - Paul Barwick tells the story of WW2 spy Nancy Wake. (This is a change to the speaker advertised in the last Newslines. Dr Tim Gray will be speaking early next year instead)

8 June - "Great British Eccentrics" - Paul Robbins looks at some of the World's great Eccentrics and Rogues who just happened to be British.

Groups News

This section of Newsline contains the Groups Facilitator's updates on recent changes to our Groups. It also has reports from the Groups themselves on their activities and any changes to their normal meeting programme. Group Information is listed alphabetically on the last three pages of Newsline, and fuller details on individual Groups are given on the "Our Groups" page on the website: <https://u3asites.org.uk/burton-joyce/groups>

Group Co-ordinators are asked to maintain contact with Group members and if anyone needs help or support they can contact our Coronavirus Help Group details of which are set out above.

Book Group

A very popular choice, this book is hard to categorise: some of it reads like a whodunit, but primarily it's about being "other" and the associated prejudices. Set in the marshes of North Carolina, it tells the story of a young girl abandoned by her family and left to bring herself up.

She turns to the natural world and observes the behaviour and mating rituals of animals realising that there is strength and comfort in herds. This only serves to emphasise her own isolation. She makes tentative steps to befriend a boy who shows her kindness and even teaches her how to read, but he too leaves her and she is left at the mercy of a predatory male who wants her for sex.

The author is a zoologist who spent many years in remote parts of the world studying animals and this is her first work of fiction. A film of the novel is due soon.

Thanks Sue for a stimulating read.

Film Group

NOW SHOWING AT A SOFA NEAR YOU

Since we reinvented ourselves the Film Group has now been to Suffolk, Ukraine, Mexico, Egypt, France, Hollywood, Vietnam and Chicago. Although we have had some maybe less than successful films (thanks Colin!) one recent audience review commented;

'What an amazing film and if you're like us and really weren't sure we'd like it at all before deciding, dive in you will be moved. This is what a film club is all about, finding things that you never expected to amaze you.' ...Film Critic Burton Joyce

Stay watching for our next offering,

Bowls

Reasons to play bowls (British Heart Foundation website 2021)

1. There is a club nearby.
2. The rules are simple.
3. It's a gentle way to get active.
4. There is a social side.
5. Its perfect for all (ages).

Are you already a bowler or would you like to learn ? Burton Joyce Bowls Club starts its new season on 17th April down at our secluded spot at Poplars Sports Ground, Station Road , BJ.

We are a lively club with a good cohort of members from the village and further afield. On 24th April we will open our ground to those who might be interested in the sport, to try out, have a free go and see if it is for them. If you are one of those people please find the time to join us at 1.45pm.

We will provide (sanitised) equipment for you to use and help you through a session with one or more of our enthusiastic members.

The number of our members present on the afternoon will be limited as we still need to comply with government directives.

Social distancing and sanitising will be at the forefront of our minds. If you are interested and would like to have a go at this form of gentle exercise please just come along or if you would like more information please ring or email me.

Gardening Group

The group has been unable to meet for several months now so we did the next best thing – Zoom. It's not quite the same as meeting up in each other's gardens and, hopefully, it won't be too long before we are able to meet up again.

We took photos of plants that were flowering in our gardens in February this year and shared them with other group members. This gave us a theme to discuss. Below are just a few photos from our group.

Christine Shepherd

Jackie Taylor, one of the Group's members says.....

“Well, it's the start of another gardening year and over the last twelve months I have been so thankful that I have a garden. During the winter months I have been doing jigsaws and reading that has kept me sane. But, once Christmas is over, there is so much to look forward to outdoors. Sadly, the snowdrops are over, but there are so many other plants waiting to take their place. I have a large Daphne bholua Jacqueline Postill, which has been smothered in blossom for weeks and its perfume fills the air. Daffodils and tulips are waiting in pots to put on a colourful display and everywhere there are signs of life in the beds and borders and bees are making the most of a good supply of nectar from crocuses and hellebores.

Let us hope that before too long we will be able to meet in other people's gardens.”

Photography Group

This month the photography group's topic was "3"

New Walking Group starting Friday 16th April

Purpose

To do a 4-6 mile walk with no stops.

Where

Generally in the locality of Burton Joyce but sometimes a bit further afield.

Due to staying local the walks will often be repeated

When

1st and 3rd Friday of each month. 10am start from The Nelson to be finished by midday.

Please note there is no permission from the Nelson to park in their car park so if coming by car please be aware of this.

Who

Though I am happy to be Group Leader, I will not always be available or wish to lead the walks. There must be a majority of group members who are happy to lead the walks. This is not onerous as most members know the local area very well and those that don't can always seek routes from myself or other members of the group. I will ask Members to lead if I don't get volunteers when needed.

Why

I feel there is a space for a group to fit between the Speedwalking group and the Ramblers Group and to select a different day for those who can't make the Wednesdays the Ramblers Groups meet. It will be an informal group where we will just set off with the people (group members) who turn up by 10am. This is a group for those who wish to do some exercise but are happy with repeating walks and scenery but with some forays outside BJ

Obviously with the Covid restrictions in the early months we will have to split into groups of 6 if more than 6 members sign up.

If you wish to sign up to this group please e mail me on this email address. You do need to sign up and not just turn up as I need to gauge interest : membershipsecretary@bju3a.co.uk

Caroline Roberts

Art Appreciation group

Buoyed up by patient instruction from the wonderful Anna Moore (second career in teaching surely beckons) I dared to hold a short Zoom meeting so that we could all make the most of a National Gallery talk on You Tube.

Through the simple – as it seemed when Trevor and I practised – “share screen” option, my plan was for us to watch “A curated look at working from home”, a 20 minute virtual tour of the curator’s favourite paintings of interiors. Despite a fairly major blip when everyone, apart from me, lost the sound, it was a delight. She guided us to five paintings by Vermeer, Chardin, Manet, Degas and Liotard and what linked them all was the calm, cool, quiet worlds depicted. She informed us that two thirds of Vermeer’s paintings are of interiors and the one above “Young Woman Standing at a Virginal” is absolutely lovely, especially the way the light shines on the walls and the silk of her dress.

Of course, I am sure we would all prefer to visit the National Gallery in person, but having an expert guide to point to details and be able to zoom in on them is wonderful and I would urge anyone interested to have a look at their website.

The group were very patient with the ineptness of their leader, and I would encourage any group leader to seek the help of Anna or any of the other committee members who have put themselves forward to assist with technology. I assure you, if I can do it, anyone can!

Third Age Trust Notices

Information on the items listed below will be displayed at our monthly meetings, or you can visit the Third Age Trust website (<http://www.u3a.org.uk>) for further details and a wealth of other information about U3A and its operations. Much of the information is only available in the Members Only area. To get maximum benefit you will need to register on the Third Age Trust website and obtain a user name and password. Members wishing to use the Resource Centre also need to apply for an Identification Number to borrow items.

Nottinghamshire Network of U3As

The Nottinghamshire Network of U3As was established to enable cooperation between U3As and the provision of support across the county and also to enable the launch of new U3As to take place. Since it began in 2009 many new U3As have been started and more are planned. There have also been workshops held for committee members to learn from one another's experience and expertise and another to establish a group of mentors who are available to work with officers in new U3As and anyone else in need of support. The Network produces a monthly newsletter, "News Bites", the latest edition of which can be viewed by clicking here. Full details of the Nottinghamshire Network can be found at <http://www.nottsu3anetwork.org/>

Do you receive the Third Age Newsletter?

This monthly Newsletter is sent by email and contains news updates, details of educational events, national events, and learning resources. Have a look at this month's edition here. It's very easy to subscribe to the newsletter. Just go to www.u3a.org.uk and click on the Newsletter tab, then fill in your email address, your name, and click on "Subscribe".
