26 Mar “Mrs Lowry & Son”

The Edinburgh Film Festival closed with the crackling tension and repressed rage of this remarkable two-handler from Vanessa Redgrave and Timothy Spall.

26 Apr David Myrne presents “Canterbury Tales”

This is Chaucer...but not as you've ever seen it. All of life is here in these few bawdy, funny, serious and sometimes shocking, short stories. Experience a journey down the foul and fetid footpaths of fourteenth-century England, told with David Myrne's usual irreverence, wit and silliness!

23 April “Knives Out”

A tribute to mystery mastermind Agatha Christie, “Knives Out” is a fun, modern-day murder mystery where everyone is a suspect. When renowned crime novelist Harlan Thrombey (Christopher Plummer) is found dead at his estate just after his 85th birthday, the inquisitive and debonair Detective Benoit Blanc (Daniel Craig) is mysteriously enlisted to investigate.

14 May Living Spit presents “Elizabeth I: Virgin on the Ridiculous”

1558 England. A country divided by religion and politics, teetering on the brink of civil war. The hopes of the nation lie with one woman.

2020 England. A country divided by those who enjoy plays featuring men in dresses and those who don't. The hopes of the nation lie with two Bristolian actors.

With live original music, silly songs, smutty shenanigans, perfunctory props, and hysterically historical horseplay, this promises to be a poorly researched lesson in Tudor history that you'll never forget.

15 May Mike O'Connor & Barbara Griggs in Concert

Mike is well-known for his song writing. His evocative songs, such as ‘Carrying Nelson Home’ have a wide following. Mike is also a well-respected storyteller, with a deep knowledge of Cornish legends and folk tales, and a mesmerising skill with language. An evening with Mike and Barbara is relaxed and highly entertaining, a delightful blend of fact, fiction, and music that has been described as ‘balm for the soul.’
