

Cambourne and District U3A Study Trip
Snape Maltings and the Aldeburgh Food Festival
Saturday September 28th 2019 Cost: £20 for minibus

For the weekend of 29th and 30th of September, Snape Maltings will once again be filled with the finest local produce, celebrity chefs, and food and drink lovers travelling from far and wide.

On Saturday the Festival will be open from 9.30am – 5pm

Situated on the river Alde in a landscape of open skies, marshland, and reedbeds, the historic Victorian maltings at Snape are the best-preserved brick malt kilns in Britain and are home to the world-famous concert halls of the Aldeburgh Festival of Music as well as a collection of shops selling food, kitchen-ware, crafts, art, books and much else. In this uniquely beautiful setting, the Aldeburgh Food and Drink Festival has become established as one of the foremost food festivals in Britain, while the whole area has become a food destination.

Other Snape attractions include walks, sculptures, art exhibitions, and a lettering museum. For more information on Snape Maltings, please see their website: <https://snapemaltings.co.uk/>

No refreshments are provided on this trip, but there will be plenty of food and drink options, or you can take your own if you prefer.
