

24-05 ANSWERS G'S GIVE THE ANSWER

1. GARIBALDI. Giuseppe Maria Garibaldi was an Italian nationalist who fought for Italy's unification.
2. GOLDEN SHOT.
3. GOOFY.
4. GIMBAL.
5. GIZA.
6. GUYANA. Formerly known as British Guiana from 1831 till independence in 1966.
7. GUINNESS.
8. GUILLOTINE. 15 others were sentenced to death but not executed before the abolition of France's death penalty in 1981.
9. GUILDER.
10. GUIDE DOGS FOR THE BLIND.
11. GRAPPA.
12. GRAPEVINE. "I heard it through the grapevine", a 60's top ten hit song.
13. GRAVLAX.
14. GHOSTBUSTERS.
15. GRID REFERENCE or GRID LINES.
16. GYPSUM.
17. GRACE. W. G. Grace, a cricketer who played his last match aged 66 on 25/7/1914. He died 23/10/1915.
18. GANDALF.
19. GRIMSBY.
20. GIRL GUIDES.
21. GODOT. The play is Waiting for Godot.
22. GENUFLECT. From the Latin genuflectere - genu – knee and flectere – to bend. Some may say it is GROVEL !!
23. GORDONSTOUN. The school's motto is, Plus est en vous (There is more in you).
24. GOURMAND.
25. GOSPORT. Opposite the city of Portsmouth.
26. GEORGE. Herbert George Wells.
27. GOLDFINGER.
28. GNU.
29. GREAT GLEN.
30. GAVIN AND STACEY.
31. GRAND MOTHER.
32. GREENPEACE. The ship was attacked by the action branch of the French foreign intelligence agency.
33. GLASGOW.
34. GIRLS. Scouting For Girls an English Indie pop and rock group.
35. GIANT'S CAUSEWAY. The basalt columns of the Causeway and Fingal's cave are of the same ancient lava flow.
36. GROUP. Group of Seven, It was the G8 but Russia was expelled in 2014.
37. GROTESQUE. Not to be confused with a gargoyle which is a carved feature forming a drainage waterspout.
38. GEORGE ELIOT. The author was Mary Anne Evans from Nuneaton.
39. GEESE. All are either resident or visitors to the British Isles.
40. GORDIAN KNOT. It was said whoever could untie it would rule Asia.
41. GEORGIA.
42. GUADELOUPE.
43. GLASTONBURY.
44. GORE-TEX.
45. GIRRAFE. Cameleopard is derived from ancient Greek, kamēlopárdalis, referring to its camel-like shape and leopard-like colouration.
46. GANACHE.
47. GLOUCESTER. Glevum was a Roman fort established in AD 48 at a crossing point on the River Severn.
48. GRAVITATIONAL.
49. GUATEMALA CITY.
50. "G'DAY."