

Jazz Appreciation Report 2023

Jazz Appreciation meets in two small groups in home surroundings, spending the monthly 2-hour session reviewing aspects of mainstream Jazz from its beginnings to the modern day.

There's tea, chat and a bit of cake as well as Biderbecke, Armstrong and Holiday (and many, many more).

Led by Dave Hewett, a retired Jazz trombonists, both groups are currently full – but we do offer a waiting list and membership does change over time.

Contact the group though the U3A website if interested, which gives more details of the timing of our meetings.
