

On Tuesday May 7th

There will be a detective mystery trail

In the Notting Hill area of London.

Your investigation will take you on a level walking route around the colourful

Streets of Notting Hill and Portobello Road.

You will see a famous bookshop (possibly 2) but probably not Hugh Grant serving in either.

Pass the Trelick Tower and enjoy a short towpath walk by the canal, before returning to the starting point.

The walk takes about 2 – 2 1/2 hours

It is level and about 3miles long

It is a circular walk starting and finishing at Notting Hill Station.

The cost is a non- refundable £10.00 for each set of case files (the clues)

Additional photocopies are £1.00 each

If you would like to go, please contact me at bruce4763@gmail.com

After 10am on 9th April

As to how many places you require

When I will return to you with further details