

On Friday the 22nd of March

There will be a tour of the Musical museum in Brentford West London

The cost will be a non-refundable

£10.00

The collection of working instruments, displays & interactive exhibits tell the story of how music has been recorded & reproduced from mechanical inventions to the present day

Their volunteers offer guided tours that combine practical demonstrations with an entertaining & informative narrative

If you would like to be included,

Please e mail bruce4763@gmail.com on Friday 23rd of February from 10am onward

when more information will follow