

On Tuesday the 21st of May there will be a visit to a place you may have passed on the North Circular Road and never knew it was there, it is the

Gunnersbury Mansion, Museum & Park

in Popes Lane South Acton.

Free admission (donations will be accepted)

The 187 acre park, mansion and museum are supported by local councils

There is an exhibition of designing & filming Sci-Fi in West London

There will be a short, guided tour of the House by a volunteer.

You can get a lunchtime snack at the crazy golf club house

(perhaps you may want to do a round)

If the weather is fine it's a pleasant stroll through the park,

so let's hope for a good spring day.

The park is a 5-10 mins walk from Acton town station.

If you would like to be included,

please email bruce4763@gmail.com

On Tuesday the 30th of April from 10am onward

When more information will follow
