

WALKING THERE – John Parry/Brian Windsor

January 2024

After not having a walk in December the weather almost stopped our January walk. The day of our walk was unusual as it was dry and sunny. Despite having had many days of heavy rain the ground was remarkably solid and stable. We had a short walk of only 4.5miles from Pidley which covered a variety of ground including woodland paths, footpaths, field tracks, open fields, a golf course and roads. The walk finished with a climb uphill back to Pidley for a welcome cup of coffee at the Mad Cat Inn.
