BOOK CLUB Reading for Pleasure Carol HILL 01992 302722

This month we have been reading Still Life by Sarah Winman. Five of us managed to get together at Carol's (we were all sorry that Jean was unwell and unable to play hostess) All those present (and Jean via speakerphone) agreed that they had enjoyed the book, and many delightful little snippets popped up in our chat as we remembered favourite sections and characters and conversations. There was a bit of controversy about the "Italian lessons" in the final chapter that some felt unnecessary and others quite enjoyed. It is such a beautiful book, with richly drawn characters and locations (the east end of London and Florence) The description of the devastating flood in Florence and it's aftermath were fascinating. Lovers of art, history, Florence, the Italian language and way of life would enjoy this book. We had a nice lunch in the Turner's Hill café after our meeting. We will be reading Mrs England (Stacy Halls) for our September meeting.

Tues 20th September 'The Great Stink'

Weds 19th October Olympic Park

Weds 2nd November Masonic Great Hall

EXPLORING LONDON 2 Rosemary TRUNDELL 01992 621155

On Wednesday 3rd August we enjoyed a most interesting walk along the North bank of the Thames from Canary Wharf to Island Gardens led by Mick Coe. We travelled on the Elizabeth Line from Liverpool Street to Canary Wharf which was new to most of us. We were very impressed by the cavernous stations and the comfort of the trains. When we got to Canary Wharf we visited the Crossrail Place Roof Garden above the station which was absolutely delightful with lots of unusual plants which are beautifully cared for and free to visit. After a coffee we made our way to the riverbank towards Island Gardens passing on the way the launch site of Brunel's SS Great Eastern which had to be launched sideways. When we got to Island Gardens we continued our walk via the foot tunnel to Greenwich where we had lunch.

Our forthcoming trips are as follows:-

Wednesday 21st September - Visit to the Museum of the Home

Wednesday 12th October - Visit to the Canal Museum which includes a demonstration of Victorian ice cream making.

We meet on the third Friday of the month at Cheshunt Free Church at 1.00 pm. Our next meeting will be on 16th September.

EXPLORING LONDON 3 STEVE GOLLOP 01992 629209

On the 16th August the group took a Thames River boat sightseeing trip from Westminster to Greenwich. Unfortunately as we arrived at Westminster Pier the weather turned a little inclement which was disappointing after two months of hot dry weather. However the on board commentary pointing out historic and modern sites we were passing was both informative and amusing. When arriving at Greenwich most of the group enjoyed lunch at the famous Goddards pie and mash shop which has been in Greenwich since 1890. After lunch there was a little time to discover some of the attractions in Greenwich before catching the boat for the return journey to Westminster.

September 19th – Tour of the Theatre Royal Drury Lane cost £18.50. Please pay for this trip at our table today. There is a maximum of 20 for this tour so new names will be added to a waiting list.

October 12th – Presentation and tour of the Bank of England. No cost involved, list will be available at today's meeting.

November – Lunch at local restaurant. Date and location to be arranged.

Next planning meeting – Wednesday 7th September, 11.15am at Cheshunt Free Church, 27 High St. Cheshunt.

EXPLORING LONDON GROUP 4

STEVE SELL 01992 443012

The next planning meeting will be on Wednesday 14th September 2022 from 11.00am at St. Clements Church Hall. Limited parking in front of the Church.

In July we travelled by coach to Bletchley Park near Milton Keynes home of the Codebreakers during the Second World War. After taking refreshment and visiting the introductory exhibition at the Visitor Centre in Block C we headed for the Chauffeurs Hut where we enjoyed an introductory talk from our very knowledgeable guide. Everyone agreed that the guided tour was excellent. We explored the Mansion, the Stable yard and the landscaped grounds with the associated huts and blocks used during the World War.

Before the Codebreakers from 1883 until 1937 Bletchley Park Mansion and grounds was owned by Sir Herbert Leon, a financier and Liberal Party politician, and his family. Herbert died in 1926 and when his widow Fanny died in 1937 the property was sold to a property developer and being near Bletchley railway station was about to be used for new housing. However, in 1938 Admiral Hugh Sinclair, Head of the SIS (Secret Intelligence Service) saw the potential for Bletchley Park and so it was acquired for use by the SIS and the more secret codebreaking and intelligence efforts of the Government Code and Cypher School.

On 4th September 1939, the day after war was declared, around 180 people were working at Bletchley Park, including newly recruited mathematicians like Alan Turing and Gordon Welchman. At its peak in early 1945, around 9,000 people worked at Bletchley Park and its associated Outstations.

Future events:

Tuesday 20th September – The Great Stink – coach tour through London and down the Thames ending at Crossness Pumping Station

EXPLORING LONDON 5

Monday 14th November - Fishmongers Hall

GARDEN VISITS

Pat DIXON 01992 766832

We visited Bressingham Steam and Gardens on Thursday 18 August. It was a lovely day, the gardens were wonderful – full of colourful flowers, shrubs and trees and the grass was very green as Bressingham has its own water supply. We enjoyed riding on the miniature trains and on the gallopers (carousel) which was great fun. ANGLESEY ABBEY Friday 23 September. Leaving Cheshunt Old Pond at 8.45am. Visit to Harlow Garden Centre on the way back. Cost £20 includes coach, garden entry, gratuities. National Trust and RHS members £5. Please remember to bring your National Trust/RHS membership cards with you on the day.

Please see me at my table to collect a booking form and/or make payment.

HOLIDAY with Cheshunt U3A

Mary Hanney 01992 426341

On Monday August 8th 46 members set off on our first U3A Cheshunt holiday, for a 5 day holiday to the Isle of Wight. The weather although extremely hot did not stop us having a great time, with members making their own arrangements to explore the island, while others enjoyed the 3 planned coach excursions Cowes for the morning on Tuesday. Around the island trip stopping for a sort while at the Pearl factory with several of us making some purchases, followed by a nice scenic ride on to Shanklin for lunch, before continuing our journey through the lovely countryside back to Norton Grange on Wednesday. On Thursday morning our last full day, the morning was spent at Allum Bay with free time to explore. It may have been our first holiday, hopefully, it will not be the last.
