BOOK CLUB Reading for Pleasure Carol HILL 01992 302722

We met on 14th February to discuss (among other things) The Temptation of Gracie by Santa Montefiore. The general agreement was that this was a well written book, which was easy to read, with a plot that was perhaps a little too good to be true. It certainly brought back memories of time spent in Tuscany (and Italy in general) so talking about the book then lead to lively reminiscences of holidays and associated memories (some more enjoyable than others, as it turned out)

We then turned to some poems, Valentines related of course, which were very entertaining, after which we adjourned to the Turner's Hill café for lunch.

Our next book will be The Appeal by Janice Hallett

EXPLORING LONDON 5

John DURRANT 01992 629215

On Tuesday January 25th, 30 members of Exploring London 5 toured Mansion House. It was a cold and grey day, with a chilly wind, but our spirits were high as we walked through the city from Liverpool Street Station.

Before the Great Fire of London in 1666 Lord Mayors used their own houses or livery halls for their work. The idea of creating a permanent residence resulted in George Dance being chosen to design and build Mansion House, which was completed in 1758. Imposingly Palladian in style, the entertaining rooms were built on the first and second floors. The first floor had a roofless courtyard (later covered to form the Salon, the entertainment space) and the great Egyptian Hall. The second floor has a ballroom and private apartments of the Lord Mayor and family. The third and fourth floors contain meeting rooms and staff rooms. The cellars have storage space and once held prisoners' cells, reflecting the former use of the Mansion House as the Lord Mayor's Court.

Huge sparkling chandeliers, ornate plaster ceilings, essential symmetry achieved using false doors, a fabulous fireplace in the gents loo, and the Hall keeper's Chair, designed to keep the draught out as he met and greeted the Lord Mayor's guests outside, which contained a draw at the bottom to put a hot pan or coal in to keep the Hall keeper warm are striking memories. The Egyptian Hall, seating 350 was being prepared for a Livery House banquet that very evening, whilst a fabulous collection of 17th century Dutch and Flemish Art and statuary lined the walls. Finally we explored the vault, stuffed with Gold and Silver plate from ancient to modern. The Keeper and Polisher of the plate kept a very close eye on us as we exited!

Future visits planned:

Thursday 3rd March - Shakespeare's Globe

Monday 11th April 2022 - Strawberry Hill House & Garden (limited availability)

Saturday 30th April - Crossness Pumping Station

Our next planning meeting will be on Tuesday 8th March @ 10.00am at the Beaumont Centre.

MORNING WALKS

Rob SCOTT 01992 445288

The walk next month will be on Tuesday 1st March from The Oak, 36 High Street, Stanstead Abbots SG12 8AG. It is a 5 mile circular walk starting at 10 00am, (although Kaitlin - the pub manager, has said she will get up early to take our orders at 9.30am; it is an untried, untested pub, so fingers crossed. Parking may be possible down Millers Lane that sides on to the pub, but otherwise there is a public car park virtually opposite the pub, which I believe is free, although a ticket must be obtained and displayed from the machine. We will head NE towards the Harcamlow Way behind Easney College; it is a walk that we have done before and after the recent rain, it is bound to be muddy.

We were extremely lucky with the weather on the February walk and although a little muddy, it was good to see at least 30 walkers out, especially four new faces - Chris and David Hewkin and Kathy Sullivan and Rob Lane. I don't think I need to give any directions, but if anyone is unsure of the start, call me on 075944 27190.
