EXPLORING LONDON 1 Eileen FUNNELL 01992 422475

On a very warm day, but fortunately not one of the hottest, 22 members of the group visited Copped Hall, nr Epping, a mid-18th century English country house. Restoration has been ongoing since 1999 by a team of volunteers, with some expert, paid help. We had a guided tour of both the house and gardens, lots of walking and standing, but well worth it. Some people braved the challenging slope down (and up!) to the greenhouses and purchased plants. We had a very welcome break with tea and home-made cake. A most enjoyable day.

Weds 24th August Afternoon tea at Pearce's Farm Shop.

Tues 20th September 'The Great Stink'. Coach to London for inc. coffee and biscuits, boat on Thames to Greenwich, then coach to Cathedral of Sewage. This trip is open to all U3a members.

Next Planning Meeting – Friday 5th August 1015 am Cheshunt Free Church.

EXPLORING LONDON 2 Rosemary TRUNDELL 01992 621155

On Monday 11th July we visited the Garden Museum in Lambeth. It is housed in the former church of St Mary-at-Lambeth and next door to Lambeth Palace. The museum's main gallery is on the first floor, in the body of the church. The collection includes tools, art and ephemera of gardening including a gallery about garden design and the evolution of gardening.

Wednesday 3rd August - Walk along the Thames Path from Canary Wharf to Island Gardens led by Mick Coe. We will be travelling from Liverpool Street to Canary Wharf on the Elizabeth Line.

Wednesday 21st September - Visit to the Museum of the Home. Cheshunt Free Church. Our next meeting will be on 19th August.

EXPLORING LONDON 3

STEVE GOLLOP 01992 629209

For our July trip we visited St. Albans cathedral. We were met at the cathedral by our guide who gave us an interesting insight into the religious and architectural changes that have taken place since it was built in 1077, including an explanation of how St. Alban became Britain's first Christian martyr. He ended our tour by showing us an extensive set of medieval wall paintings that, by using modern technology, can be seen in their original glory. As would be expected our day finished with lunch at a local hostelry.

August 16th – Thames River Boat Trip from Westminster Pier to Greenwich and return, cost £18.50. More details on our table.

September 19th – Tour of the Theatre Royal Drury Lane cost £18.50. Please pay for this trip at our table today. There is a maximum of 20 for this tour so any further names will be added to the waiting list.

October – Bank of England – to be arranged.

Next planning meeting – Wednesday 3rd August 11.15am at Cheshunt Free Church, 27 High St. Cheshunt.

EXPLORING LONDON GROUP 4

STEVE SELL 01992 443012

The next planning meeting will be on Wednesday 10th August 2022 from 11.00am at St. Clements Church Hall. Limited parking in front of the Church.

In June we enjoyed an amazing tour of the recently renovated Theatre Royal Drury Lane. The paintings and statues commissioned for the upgrade are very impressive and considerable effort has been made to make the guided tour a theatrical performance itself. Our two actor guides were excellent, to the extent that everyone was soon trying to anticipate the next surprise they had in store for us.

Exp Lon 4 con..

We learnt that the theatre is reputed to be one of the most haunted, and we were treated to a 'ghostly apparition' when we visited the auditorium. Andrew Lloyd Webber purchased the theatre in the year 2000 and has funded the recent restoration of public areas to a regency style, the upgrade to seating and facilities and modernisation of the theatre's equipment. Recent shows at the Theatre Royal include Oliver, Shrek the Musical, Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, 42nd Street and currently Disney's Frozen.

Tuesday 23rd August - train to Brighton.

Tuesday 20th September – The Great Stink – coach tour through London and down the Thames ending at Crossness Pumping Station

EXPLORING LONDON 5

John DURRANT 01992 629215

In early July we visited Cambridge by train. Unfortunately, a tree had decided to interfere with the overhead power lines in the Sawbridgeworth area, resulting in no trains running from Cheshunt. In the end we went via Finsbury Park arriving in Cambridge two hours late ! We met our very understanding guide, and had a brief introduction to the college in the beautiful Old Library. This was the original College Chapel, dating back to the 14th Century.

Pembroke College, founded in 1347 by Marie de St Pol, Countess of Pembroke, is third oldest of the Cambridge colleges and was the first to have its own Chapel. Pembroke is the earliest Cambridge College to survive today on its original site with an unbroken constitution from its foundation. We admired the wonderful plaster ceiling of the Old Library before joining the students and staff for lunch in Hall. Refreshed and recharged, we resumed our tour of the college. The current Chapel owes its origins to Matthew Wren, Bishop of Ely. During his imprisonment in the Tower of London during the Civil War he vowed that, if he were released, he would build a new chapel for his College. This he did, choosing for the architect his nephew, and the Chapel of Pembroke, consecrated in 1665, is the first completed work of Sir Christopher Wren and the first chapel in Oxford or Cambridge in the classical style.

Famous Pembroke alumni include Eric Idle, Tim Brooke-Taylor, Clive James and Peter Cook, Thomas Gray (of Elegy fame) and William Pitt the younger.

Pressing on to the Botanic Gardens we enjoyed a Tour again lead by our ever knowledgeable tour guide. The first director of the garden, a certain John Stevens Henslow was invited to join HMS Beagle, but nominated Charles Darwin to take his place. This experience allowed Darwin, following discussions with Henslow, to develop his theory of evolution.

Thankfully the trains were running to schedule for our return journey, so after a hasty cuppa we returned to Cheshunt as planned. It was a day full of history, beautiful gardens and gave us a taste of Cambridge College life in the 21st Century.

Future visits:

Tuesday 9th August – Social get together/Planning Meeting in Cedars Park 10.00am

Tuesday 20th September – Copped Hall House and Gardens

October – To be arranged

FAMILY HISTORY Rena KING 01992631826 rena.barry@sky.com

RACKETBALL ayturnham@gmail.com

Some progress to report at last. I have arranged a sampler / introductory session to racketball for Monday 1st August between 1pm & 2.30pm @ Broxbourne Sports Club, Mill Lane, Broxbourne. Nick Mulvey, our coach, will run the session and provide rackets & balls. Please wear non-marking sports footwear on the courts. Entry is via the front entrance door by push-button to alert the staff in the building. I appreciate that Monday was not the preferred day of the week for some of you but, if successful, a further session can be arranged for a Thursday in the future. Please let me know if you are able, and intend, to make this session so that I can inform the coach. Any questions please email me.

SHORT WALKS

Andy Smith 07930 356 976

Despite a rather poor attendance at our July walk around Gunpowder park, 5 short walkers enjoyed a mostly shady walk around this beautiful park. No doubt others were put off by the extreme weather or like us were getting a short holiday in before the schools finish.

This months walk:- Friday 12th August will meet at Huntingdon Close opposite Slipe Lane and Wormley free Church at 10:15 for a 10:30 Start. Sat Nav EN10 6DR Free Parking in the Close. The 310 Bus will also take you there, get off just past Hertford Regional College and walk 300 yds towards Broxbourne. Huntingdon Close is on your left.)

We will start the walk along the New river and then past Broxbourne golf centre and through the nature reserve up to the A10. Back through the Golf Course and Wormley Playing Fields. Over half of this walk is in the shade so hopefully if it gets hot again it won't be too exhausting. 2.5 Miles Circular. Cafe and Toilets in Wormley Cafe.
