BOOK CLUB Reading for Pleasure

Carol Hill 01992 302722

The Reading for Pleasure group met on 14th November to discuss, amongst many things, The Giver of Stars by Jojo Moyes. Vicky could not be with us, but wrote such a good account of her feelings about the book (it was her recommendation) we have included it here. Most of us agreed with Vicky, either entirely or for the most part.

"I was immediately transported to the beautiful but rugged country of Kentucky and felt for Alice in such a different part of the world. She was stifled by the house of the Van Cleve's with the constant reminder of "Mother", so the opportunity to join the Pack Horse Library came as a god-send.

The library made such a difference to people's lives and as a book group who love reading, we can really understand how it changed people, which was one of the joys of the story. Of course, it changed Alice too.

There were funny moments, particularly the reference to the "Little Blue Book", also shocking ones, for example the running of the mine, the open racism as well as domestic violence which was almost seen as acceptable.

I thought all the characters, apart from Mr Van Cleve, had some redeeming features. I did think the plot sagged a bit while Margery was in prison. However, I loved the two twists at the end.

The book was enjoyed by all and it stimulated a lively discussion.

EXPLORING LONDON 1

Eileen Funnell 01992 422475

We recently visited Freemasons Hall in Queen Street. Unfortunately they don't do guided tours now, just the self-guided headphones. We couldn't go in the Grand Temple as there was a big meeting on but we were lucky enough to see them all coming out in their regalia and managed to have a glimpse inside. We lunched in Wetherspoons opposite.

Our Christmas lunch is on Wednesday 7th December at Kingsmead.

Next Planning Meeting Friday 6th January at 10:15am at Cheshunt Free Church.

May I wish all the members a very Happy Christmas and a healthy 2023.

EXPLORING LONDON 2

Rosemary Trundell 01992 621155

On 10th November we enjoyed a guided tour of St Paul's Cathedral. We had an excellent guide who gave us the history of the cathedral and pointed out the most interesting features. As most people know St Paul's was designed by Sir Christopher Wren to replace the Norman cathedral which was destroyed in the Great Fire of 1666. The building of the new cathedral took from 1672-1717. We were shown the remarkable Geometric Staircase in the South West Bell Tower which has featured in The Madness of King George and one of the Harry Potter films. St Paul's was the first Protestant cathedral and Wren designed the cathedral in the English Baroque style. His vision was the building should be flooded with light and therefore did not include any stained glass windows. However, the Victorians added stained glass to some of the windows and other embellishments to the Choir area. We concluded our tour in the Crypt where Wellington and Nelson are buried.

Our forthcoming trips are as follows:-

Tuesday 6th December Christmas Lunch at the Highland Restaurant

Thursday 12th January 2023 Visit to Tate Modern

EXPLORING LONDON 4

Steve Sell 01992 443012

This month we went on a very long but very interesting tour with our July speaker Paul Barwick. Entitled 'Eyes on the Spies' we visited the locations associated with Nancy Wake, the 'White Mouse' and ex-Soviet spy Alexander Litvinenko, silenced permanently with the deadly nerve agent Polonium. We visited the MI6 building in Vauxhall and were treated to the sad story of 'The body in the bag affair' about the mysterious death of MI6 spy Gareth Williams.

The next planning meeting will be on Wednesday 14th December 2022 from 11:00am at St. Clements Church Hall. Limited parking in front of the Church.

Our forthcoming trips are as follows:-

Monday 28th November - National Gallery Guided Tour

Monday 5th December - Saville Gardens, Old Windsor Christmas Illuminations leaving Cheshunt at 3:30-3:35pm by coach.

Friday 9th December - Eating Christmas; an entertaining blue badge guided walk with Ann.

Pick up all sorts of titbits to astonish your Christmas dining companions – the turkeys that walked to London, the chequered history of the sprout, the rise and fall of the goose. Salivate over grand pudding recipes, shudder over workhouse Christmas fare. And the meaty past of the mince pie – make sure you eat 12 of them ...and we end at that feast for the senses, Borough Market, where you can stock up on Christmas supplies.

Wednesday 14th December – Christmas Dinner at the Bulls Head 7:00pm.

EXPLORING LONDON 5

John Durrant 07515 971162

On 24th October we enjoyed a splendid guided tour of the Highlights of the British Museum. Our guide Paula began with the Ancient Civilisations of Mesopotamia, situated within the Tigris-Euphrates river system. It was here the wheel was invented, the first cereal crops were grown and their use of cuneiform script is the oldest form of writing.

The Ancient Greek Civilisation gave us democracy, theatre, philosophy and the Olympic Games. We admired the impressive Parthenon (Elgin) Marbles, part of the Acropolis in Athens and taken by Lord Elgin to London. The Greeks would really like them returned!

The Rosetta Stone message is written in three types of script, allowing Egyptian Hieroglyphics to be understood. The impressive statue of Ramesses II, a public statement of the King's divine status and power, depicts Ramesses as young, handsome and athletic.

No visit to the British Museum is complete without visiting the mummies! As it was half term we hastened through the Mummy Gallery, stopping only to hear a detailed description of the gory process of mummification. This was not for the fainthearted!

Finally, we moved on to some ancient finds made in the UK. The Mildenhall Treasure consists of 34 pieces of Roman Silver tableware of the fourth century. Ploughed up in a farmers field, he took them home, cleaned them with a Brillo pad and kept them on his sideboard. A visitor recognised their worth, they were seized and given to the British Museum.

The Great Ship burial of Sutton Hoo is the richest burial found in Northern Europe. 1,400 years ago a king or great warrior of East Anglia was laid to rest in a 90 foot boat, surrounded by his extraordinary treasures. Silverware from distant Byzantium, Sri Lankan garnets, fine feasting vessels and an iconic helmet with human mask were discovered in this early seventh century burial mound.

We retired, as usual, to a local hostelry completing a very interesting and informative day.

Our forthcoming trips are as follows:-

Saturday 3rd December - Rochester Christmas Market

Our next planning meeting will be on Tuesday 13th December 2022 at 10:00am at the Beaumont Centre.

Next walk will be on Friday 9th December at 10:15am for 10:30am start at Cedars Park car park (EN8 8RU) for a walk to the LT Ellis Memorial and around Cedars Park. As usual on our Xmas Walk mince pies will be supplied, so please book in to avoid disappointment!
