

Presentations by Chester U3A Members on Thursday 14th March 2019

- Val from Friday Writers My story used the last line of 'A Possible Life' by Sebastian Faulks as the first line of the story.... the title 'Because I think we're all in this thing, like it or not for ever'. Very short summary of story line: Washed out actress plans and executes the death of her brother, a popular author.
- Rob gave an overview of the plans for Thursdays and a draft schedule for the forthcoming year. See his presentation here > Thursdays - a new approach.
- Su from Friday Writers talked about what they do.
- Sue from A Life Less Plastic talked about this new group's plans & you can see what they learnt about how CWAC recycle our domestic waste on the group page.
- Marie from Flower Arranging gave an amazing illustration of how to arrange simple flowers. With special mention to Gary, for his camera-work showing the whole procedure and the beautiful results, on the big screen.
- Geoff from Friday Writers. The title of my story was "A Good Try " (adapted from the sequel to my first book 'Ben Jonson and a Case of Fraudulent Conversion')” by Geoffrey Benson. In this tale, Ben Jonson, forensic accountant extraordinaire, has read a book entitled “Interview techniques for financial witnesses.” His attempts to put the theory into practice are met with what might be described as less than resounding success...
