Don't forget to look at our Activity Groups on the back of this sheet.

Thursday 2nd May: Simon Watts: A tail of two Eagles. Wildlife in Scotland including Pine Martens, Red Squirrels, The Loch Ness Monster and Pink Unicorns.

Bill Day is leading a Nature Stroll around Brandon Marsh or Brandon Reach depending on the state of the ground on Thursday 11th April.

Coming Soon: 23rd May: Bill Day, The History of Everything, 'Nelson and the Battle of Trafalgar'.

The Culture Vultures event last month. Here Maureen Day is seen experiencing 'stepping into a painting' at the Van Gogh: The Immersive Experience, All Saints Church, Leicester. A very good time was had by all members attending the event.

We are thinking of going again in June/July if there is sufficient interest and demand. Tickets are £8 for groups in multiples of 6.

The 'Blitz Walk' A Guided Tour of the April 1941 Blitz of Coventry by Jo Phillips for our u3a members. Monday 15th of April. Meet at the Starley Statue (outside Loveitts Estate Agent)

The 'Showcase Cinema' has Silver Screenings every Monday.

Arrive before 4pm and see any film for £5! There is a list of available films for April and May on the signing up table. Get together with friends and arrange a visit. The Number 8 bus will take you to Cross Point and then it's only a short walk to the cinema.

Anne Tithecott is leading a short walk around the Miners' Welfare Park Bedworth with lunch at 'The Griff Inn' on Wednesday 24th April.

A popular group is the 'Pub Quiz' held at the Humber Pub on the third Thursday of the month. The next one will be on 17th of April at 2.00 p.m. Competition is fierce with friendly rivalry and banter.

If you know of any member ill or in hospital, please contact Ann Karabinas, who will ask Rita Heal to send a 'Get Well' card.

Dates for your April Diary
