Today 09/06/2022 Celebration BYO lunch

Thursday 7th July Gary Haigh Being a Magician - with tricks. 2pm start.

Part of our Exhibit for the joint Coventry u3a exhibition as part of Coventry's City of Culture and 40 years of u3a

A big thank you to all who contributed and all those who volunteered to help on the different days.

It proved what we all knew what diverse and talented members we have. A special thank you to Anne Tithecott who staffed the exhibition in its various venues and Bill Day who coordinated the event.

A favourite returns Coffee in the Park Wednesday 15/06/2022 at 10.30pm

We have the return of a favourite activity throughout the pandemic Coffee in the park. Just turn up at Caludon Park at 10.30pm 15/06/2022 with a seat and a drink

[It does not have to be coffee] Weather permitting of course

Culture Vultures have exciting plans

Machine Memoirs in Space is a visual feast for the eyes. It is planned to take a group to see this exhibition at The Coventry Evening Telegraph Hotel on Thursday 28th July at 12.00 noon if enough interest, tickets are £5.00.

Please contact Bill Day.

Our first Far & Wide Walk will take place on Thursday 16th June. The Far & Wide Walks will be further afield and slightly more energetic, although we will take our time, Meet at Tesco car park, Clifford Bridge Road at 9.45am, before heading off in our cars to Kingswood, near Solihull, for a walk in the Baddesley Clinton area. The earlier meeting time is to allow for the longer drive and longer walk, so that we can fit everything in before lunch at a country pub (t.b.a.). All being well, the drive should take just over 30 minutes and the walk will be between 4.5 - 5 miles in length. Please ensure that you have sturdy walking boots or shoes and a waterproof. There are no plans to go round the Baddesley Clinton or nearby Packwood House National Trust properties, but of course you would be free to make your own plans after lunch, subject to car sharing arrangements. Contact Bill Day.

Krishna Birdi and her husband at The Mayor Making ceremony at Coventry Cathedral

I am sure you will want to congratulate our member Krishna Birdi who has become Coventry's Deputy Lady Mayoress for the coming year, so will be our Lady Mayoress in 2023
