May Meeting

Everyone who attended the Celebration meeting, had a good time. A big thank you to those who took part in the Best Dressed Potato competition our Guest Judge had a hard time deciding on the winners who were.

- 1 Joy Copeland
- 2 Janet foot & Marion Hodgkin
- 3 Val Simpson & Margaret Button

The Best Dressed Potato Competition

Another high light of the afternoon was the short play written, directed and acted in by Eric Hodgkins a light-hearted reworking of the siege of Coventry during the English Civil war and its aftermath. It was a triumph and enjoyed by all. The cast had very little rehearsal, but it didn't show. A big thank you to all who took part.

Culture Vultures June 22nd

Using the bus to travel to Leicester Museum and Art Gallery with our concessionary bus passes catching the X6, stand D, which leaves Pool

Meadow at 9.40am. The bus stops at Coventry University, Far Gosford St and Clements St. (Ball Hill), reaching Burns Rd. (The Forum) at approx. 9.48am. The bus continues via stops at New Pippin and Walsgrave Church before arriving at Bonners Lane, Leicester at 10.46am, where we exit the bus. We will then walk to the Museum in New Walk, arriving in time for its 11.00am opening (free entry). We will catch the (hourly) bus back to Coventry, from the Nelson Mandela Park stop, after grabbing some lunch.

Please sign Sheets.
