It is our 25th Anniversary this month Coventry Sherbourne U3A began on the 3rd of November 1973 25 years ago. The inaugural meeting was held at the United Reform Church Holyhead Rd. Hence the answer to the mystery why we are called Sherbourne U3A because The group was close to the River Sherbourne, we have since moved to various venues but kept the name. On the committee then was Dorothy Mayo who is still a valued Member and runs the Reading Group The other long termed members are Mavis Lindop and Elizabeth Holmes who are still taking part in group activities.
