Today is our 30th Anniversary Celebration with our Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress, Councillor Birdi, and Mrs Krishna Birdi in attendance.

There is an Autumn Exhibition of Members' Hobbies and Talents.

A 'Pumpkin Carving Competition' is being held with prizes being awarded.

A 'Treasure Hunt Game' has been set up and a prize will be awarded to the finder of the treasure.

Eric Hodgkins is hosting a display of 'War Helmets through the Ages'. He is happy for people to wear these and take selfies if they wish to do so.

To celebrate the occasion there will be cake and the chance to have a chat whilst admiring the exhibition.

The money collected for Macmillan Cancer Care at the October Meeting was £78.43

The Far and Wide Walkers visited Braunston for their October Walk.

We are planning a 'Mid-Winter Lunch' on January 25th at the 'Brewers Fayre' Walsgrave. Names and £5 deposit will be collected at the December Meeting.

The December Meeting will feature a Quiz hosted by the one and only Sylvia with team prizes for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd places. There will also of course be Festive mince pies available.

The Committee is looking to update the Constitution of Coventry Sherbourne u3a. This will be further discussed at the AGM in February 2024.

If you know of any member ill or in hospital, please get in touch with Ann Karabinas, who will then contact Rita Heal to send a 'Get Well' card.

Dates for your November Diary
