

April 8th, John Clark talk about "Gog and Magog : the Giants of Guildhall"

May 13th, Brian Thomson talk about " In the footsteps of Herbert Tompkins "

June 10th, Chris Hillier talk about " Sand and Gravel , the story of Walkers of Rickmansworth "

July 8th, Graham Everett talk about " Matthew Paris: the most remarkable monk in St Albans Abbey's 700 years history ?"

August - no meeting in the British Legion Hall.

If possible , a visit to a place of interest locally , using car share as a transport option or investigating an outing to the Transport for London Museum by tube train with volunteer support and a tailored programme for those with mobility issues !

September 9th, Richard Lee talk about " Local Historical Curiosities. "

October 14th, Sam Hearn talk about "Seriously seeking Sybil Penn - A Tudor Survivor, the Hampton Court's Grey Lady ."

November 11th, Bob Redman talk about " Elstree : Britain's Hollywood. "

December 9th, David Burnell talk about " The Myth of Metroland ."