

Dulwich and District

u3a

MONTHLY MEETING ZOOM TALK

John Keats, Hampstead and a Nightingale

Tuesday 12 January 2pm on zoom.

A Talk by Geoff Pick

Geoff Pick OBE is Director of the London Metropolitan Archives and formerly curator of Keats House. Geoff will talk on Keats poems in this Centenary year as well as describing the Hampstead House.

Please contact secretary@dulwich-u3a.uk for a zoom invite. Dulwich U3A has over ninety interest groups ranging from Archaeology to Zumba which meet regularly, as well as monthly talks on a wide range of subjects.

For more information about Dulwich and District U3A activities see Website at dulwich-u3a.uk or find us on Facebook

A Short History of Revolutions and how they have shaped the Modern World

a talk by Peter Ruben

Full blooded revolutions are few and far between, by understanding why these events happen one can better understand political and economic instability. The talk focuses on liberal, Marxist and modern views of what causes revolutions.

The speaker, Peter Ruben is Head of Politics and economics at a leading independent school. Contact secretary@dulwich-u3a for the link to the Zoom meeting

For more information about Dulwich and District U3A activities see Website at dulwich-u3a.uk or find us on Facebook

