

Anne's new Folk Blog is a great idea! I really enjoy attending the fortnightly singing sessions at the Finmill Centre. Everyone is so friendly and we are all learning new songs, revisiting familiar songs and learning how to harmonise. Anne is always extremely well organised and usually has a little surprise added to her lesson. Today we briefly became 'lyricists'! Some were very impressive! I'm already looking forward to our next meeting.

Liz Crawford