Important health and safety information relating to this trip

Travel:

Participants will travel by coach, operated under current health regulations, if any. You will be in close proximity to others for periods in excess of two hours.

Accessibility:

Please inform us if you have any requirements such as mobility issues, or the need of a companion to travel with you, and we will endeavour to accommodate you, but this cannot be guaranteed.

ELECTRONIC BANK TRANSFER

Many of our members are now using Dunmow u3a's electronic transfer system. It is quick and simple and, once set up, you can use the same payment method for all your outings.

If you would like to pay through electronic transfer, use the bank account details, BELOW. PLEASE NOTE, this is NOT the same account as the membership renewal account.

Terms and conditions:

- All Outings are non-refundable once payment has been made.
- Please ensure that you have read the Health and Safety notes below and that you have considered your own health risks and needs posed by this outing.
- All persons on outings organised by Dunmow u3a travel at their own risk.
- In the event of a late arrival or aborted trip, due to issues such as adverse weather conditions, unavoidable holdups in travel or vehicle breakdown, it may not be possible to claim back participants' costs and the loss will have to be borne by the individual. Dunmow u3a will not be liable for the loss.

Sort code is: 30 92 76 (for Dunmow TSB)
