

Beer Investigation Group 2022

January we went to the Magpie and Crown in Brentford, Free House, great selection of ales.

February saw us at the Sussex Arms, Twickenham Green – Free House - spoiled for choice of really interesting brews.

March: The Black Dog, Brentford – free house, great selection and super food.

April: – Three interesting Pubs in Barnes – led by Maureen and Ken;

May – Our annual visit to the Express Tavern, Kew Bridge did not disappoint.

June – The Grosvenor, West Ealing – a year since it was acquired by CAT pubs and doing well.

July – the wonderful Ealing Beer Festival returned! 300 ales on offer – thank you West Middlesex CAMRA.

August saw us at the Rose and Crown (a Fullers pub) in South Ealing then in September at the Red Lion on Ealing Green. In October we had our annual outing to Central London to visit The Magpie (a Nicholson's pub) near Liverpool St station, then some of us went on to Williams Ale and Cider House, just off Bishopsgate - see the report from Kevin here (Trip to Liverpool St).

In November we had two outings in Northfields, a lunchtime at The Forester, and an evening at the Owl and Pussycat.

December saw us back at the Magpie and Crown Brentford where we also had a Quiz. How well do you know your Twickenham Ales beer labels, the names of glasses and terms for quantities of beer?
