

2017

August: Poland – U Jarka. Friendly staff, Mixed reviews on food -portions very large. Service a bit slow, ambience good.- very authentic.

September: Vietnam- Non Viet. Generally enjoyed by all.

October: Cuba – Revolucion de Cuba. Choice of set meal or tapas. Pre-order on both. Food and ambience good but service chaotic.

November: Africa- Calabash. Basement restaurant. Food was generally good, freshly prepared and tasty although lamb tough and chewy Wine inexpensive. Staff friendly and helpful but the service was slow.

December: Scotland - Joint lunch for both groups (37 in total). Excellent all round. Staff friendly and helpful.

2018

January: Lebanon - Beirut Star. Good food and exceptionally friendly staff. No alcohol.

February: Australia – Walkabout. Pub atmosphere with food ordered at bar counter. Food reasonably good.

March: India - Bombay Blues. Buffet lunch with a la carte option. Nice conservatory at the back. Friendly service. Busy restaurant.

April: Greece - Yiamas. Pre-order. Food good although portion sizes were inconsistent with pricing. Service not great.

May: Egypt – Nur. Second visit here and menu not changed from last time. Pre-order, BYOB and an early evening meal as not open at lunchtime. Only 1 member of staff waiting so service was slow.

June: Italy – Pulcinella. Cheap and cheerful Friendly service. Good atmosphere – generally enjoyed

July: China - Amber Regent. Good food and service Enjoyed by all.