

2018

August: : Brazil - Viva Brazil Menu more restricted than last visit, but generally enjoyed.

September: Japan – Nanakusa. Authentic and attractive restaurant. Service erratic-good for some, but not all. Food very good although those taking the 'box lunch did not enjoy.

October: France - Atlantic Brasserie. Down flight of stairs. Generally enjoyed by all .

November: Thailand – Thairrific. Newly opened after fire and up a long flight of stairs. Food excellent, service slick – pre-ordered. Very good!

December Scotland – Ardnamuchan Christmas lunch with both groups combined. Food excellent. Pre-order and deposits all worked. Problems in getting groups to inter – mingle.

2019

January: Russia -Cafe Cossachok. Second visit for both groups and same high standard.

February: Persia – Paradise. Second visit for both groups and not as well received as before. BYOB

March: America – NY Grill. Mixed reviews – some dishes good, others not. Lacked authenticity.

April: South Korea – Silla. This restaurant has had a make- over and is possibly under new management. Food was good and service friendly.

May: Spain – Malaga Tapas Centro. Authentic Spanish atmosphere, good food and wine. Enjoyed by all.

June: Nepal- Himalayan Dine. Inexpensive 2-course lunch. Very good and enjoyed by all.

July: Poland – U Jarka. Early evening meal. Inexpensive and large portions. Friendly Polish staff.Down internal flight of stairs.
