

Edinburgh U3A Luminate Event 28th May

This is your chance to see some of our groups who will be showcasing their interests and talents. There will be ukuleles, photography, choir, recorders, jazz, circle dancing, creative writing, blues, astronomy, art, raspberry pi, archaeology, crosswords, science, tapestry, etc.

If you have not registered already, please do so by 14th May, emailing g.seath@napier.ac.uk or phoning 455 3214. Group participants should also register.

If you know members who are not on email, please let them know about this.

Details:

28th May 1.30 for 2.15pm, closes 4pm. Some refreshments.

The War Poets Collection will then be on view until 4.30pm.

Venue: Rivers Suite and Chapel, Edinburgh Napier University, Craiglockhart Campus 219 Colinton Road, EH14 1DJ

This campus is on the corner of Glenlockhart Road and Colinton Road..

Buses: 36 to Glenlockhart Road, and 4, 10, 27, 45 to Colinton Road.

If driving enter from Glenlockhart Road and follow signs to car park A. If you are disabled or are bringing equipment, then turn right instead and follow small disabled parking signs up to the Colinton Road front of the building.

There are steps up to the building from car park A and the bus stops, so for those who need it, there will be a car shuttle service from the car park and also from near the Colinton Road bus stop from 1.30-2.00pm.

Access: the venue is fully wheelchair accessible from the disabled car park.

We look forward to seeing you there.
