

Volunteers Needed!

I am an MA Linguistics student at Nottingham Trent University and I am looking for volunteers to help me carry out some research on accents and dialects in Nottingham. The research would take place in a 1 hour, one-off workshop to be held in January 2019.

I am looking for volunteers over the age of 55 who have lived in the Nottingham area for at least 10 years. If you think you could help then please email me for further details including workshop dates, times and locations:

Thank you!

LINGUISTIC WORKSHOP
DATE – TIME - LOCATION

Thursday 31 January 2019
Upstairs Room
Mansfield Woodhouse Library
2 to 3 pm.

It would be great if you could let me know if you think you may be able to attend - please bring friends/family along if they are suitable for the study.

I am hoping for a minimum of 10 people in the workshop so any help you can offer to persuade people to come along would be fantastic!

If facilities are available, I will provide tea/coffee and biscuits. Although I can't give too much detail about what the workshop will consist of, I just wanted to reassure everyone that I will not be listening to anyone's accent in the workshop - you will be doing the listening, talking to each other and writing down your thoughts.

Please let me know if you need any further details. I hope to see you all in January and wish you all a Happy 2019!
