Guildford Area

Come and see what
Guildford u3a has to offer in 2023/24

What is the u3a?

The u3a is a self-help organization for older adults who enjoy the company of like-minded individuals. It draws on the knowledge and experience of its members to set up interest, activity and recreational groups, which meet regularly.

Guildford Area u3a has over 100 interest groups, plus trips, outings, monthly meetings and coffee mornings. Most meetings provide a social element for members to meet, but some have stayed with Zoom for remote meetings. Almost all our groups are run by members on a voluntary basis.

Our groups are divided into eight categories, plus Visits and Outings. Each category has a Group Co-Ordinator, and each group has a Group Leader, whose details are in our prospectus and on our website. Contact the Group Leader to find out more and to sign up for a group.

We meet in a range of local venues, including village or church halls, as well as private homes. Following the pandemic, some of our groups have continued to meet virtually, using Zoom or websites.

Groups are divided into:

Arts & Crafts

Games & Indoor Pursuits

Humanities

- Discussion
- History
- Social Sciences

Learn to take better photographs by exploring the creative thinking process, practical techniques and reviewing work.

Games & Indoor Pursuits

Backgammon

Enjoy playing this classical board game with others.
Players of all abilities welcome.

Bridge

Six groups. From beginners to advanced, social to duplicate, we've got Bridge groups to suit all abilities and interests. Learn from scratch or develop your skills.

Chess

A class for beginners or those with some experience.

Chi Gung

Various Chinese healing exercises to cultivate the life energy systems and maintain good health in mind, body and spirit. Similar to Tai Chi, but not a martial art.

First Aid

Learn what to do when someone needs medical help.

International Folk Dancing

Enjoy learning traditional folk dances from around the world. Lovely music and fun exercise.

Keep Fit – Medau

Two groups. Medau is a fun, unique fitness experience, which challenges your body, balance, posture, mobility, strength and co-ordination. (Supplementary charge)

Philosophy

Wide ranging discussions on different philosophical issues and key philosophers, with reference to current events.

Social Anthropology

Discover things about ourselves and attitudes, by understanding other cultures.

Languages

French

Six groups. From beginners to advanced. Some use course books and some are conversation classes. Some use French current affairs for discussion.

German

Five groups. Beginners to Advanced, using both textbooks and conversation to improve our skills.

Italian

Five groups. From absolute beginners to intermediate levels. Some taught course and some conversation practice.

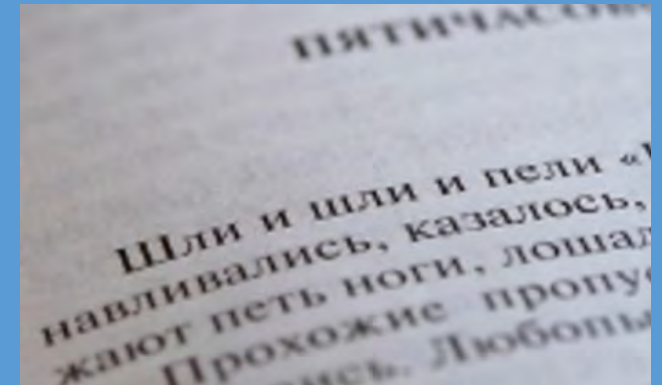

Latin

From beginners to advanced. Using a textbook to learn proverbs, inscriptions and horticultural terms. Plus some social events during the year.

Russian

Two groups. Beginners and intermediate. Using a textbook and other texts for translation.

Spanish

Four groups. Beginners through to advanced. Using textbooks for taught courses or practising through conversation classes.

Literature & Drama

Book Groups

Four Book Choice groups, plus Book Lovers and a Book & Dining group. Enjoy a wide-ranging selection of books to read and discuss, both fact and fiction.

Brush up your Shakespeare

An exploration of Shakespeare's plays, starting with Macbeth, with plenty of room for discussion.

Classical Literature

Appreciate Ancient Greek and Roman literature by reading plays, poetry and histories.

'So how was it? Pete's great isn't he?'

Pete was a university friend. Bright, sweet, and shy he was romantically useless, so I'd set him up with Sue.

'Well, lovely-ish. We went to the Italian. After a couple of glasses of wine he relaxed, and was much more fun than I first expected, but honestly Caro, what a klutz!'

'How do you mean?'

'Well, we were walking back to the tube and window shopping (you know he's kitting out his flat), when he suddenly blurts out "I like sex." I didn't know how to react so I said "Many people do", made my excuses and left.'

I decided this needed investigating.

Flash Fiction

A creative writing group, specializing in short stories. Share your work and receive constructive criticism.

Memoir Writing

Get motivated and encouraged to write your memoirs. For those who have already started and those who are new to writing.

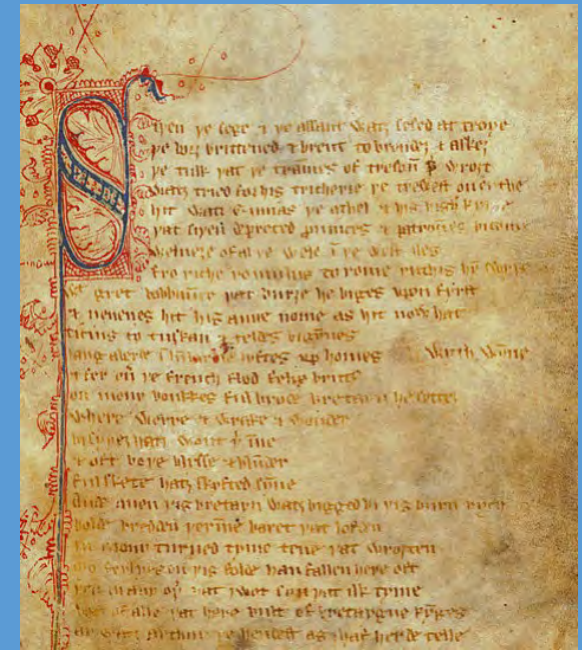

Sir Gawain and Company

Concentrating on the poetry of the Alliterative Tradition, contemporary with Chaucer, but different. Focusing on Sir Gawain and the Green Knight.

This poem is dangerous it should not be left
Within the reach of children or even adults
Who might swallow it whole, with possibly Undesirable side-effects. If you come across
An unattended, unidentified poem
In a public place, do not attempt to tackle it
Yourself. Send it (preferably, in a sealed container)
To the nearest centre of learning, where it will be rendered
Harmless, by experts. Even the simplest poem
May destroy your immunity to human emotions.
All poems must carry a government warning. Words
Can seriously affect your heart.

Poetry

Members choose a poet and lead a session to discuss the work.

The Chaucer Group

Read and enjoy The Canterbury Tales in the original Middle English, followed by discussion.

The Novels of Jane Austen

Read and enjoy these books about late 18th century life.

Writers' Workshop

Write on given or self-chosen topics.

Discuss and be encouraged. Share your work with the group. Beginners welcome.

Music

Chamber Music

Listen and learn, enjoying a wide variety of music from 1700-1920.

Concert Choice

Enhance our understanding and appreciation of classical music. Members create programmes to introduce various musical periods.

Ensemble

Whatever your standard of instrument playing, come and join the group playing all genres of music.

Jazz

Six live concerts arranged during the year, plus a Christmas concert. (Supplementary charge)

Singing

Two groups. Enjoy the physical and social benefits of singing. One group works towards concerts during the year, singing a wide range of songs. The other is Singing for Fun, for those who are fairly new to singing. (Supplementary charge)

Ukulele

Learn, practise or develop your ukulele skills, playing in an ensemble. Repertoire is based on popular songs of the last 100 years.

Science & Computing

Astronomy & Space Science

We consider the visible night sky, current space news and topics such as the origins of the universe.

Image credit: NASA/ESA/Hubble/Z. Levay

Digital Groups

Two groups. Introduction to Digital Devices is for those who are fairly new to digital technology. Digital Living offers talks and discussions to help us get the most out of modern living.

Engineering Group

Talks on a wide range of engineering topics, where members' own experience and interest can be shared and discussed.

Natural History and Environment
Talks in the winter on natural world topics and outings in the summer to places of interest.

Science Forum

Presentations on a wide variety of subjects by members or visitors, who have a special interest or enthusiasm for aspects of science.

Sport & Outdoor Leisure

Badminton

A lively game – an enjoyable way to meet people and take some brisk exercise. (Supplementary charge)

Boules

Two groups. Weather permitting, the groups play in the autumn and spring months. More light-hearted than Bowls, but gentle exercise.

Geocaching

A high-tech treasure hunt. Enjoy a walk and use a smartphone or GPS to find caches and log them.

Personal Gardens

Meet in each other's homes/gardens, plus visits to gardens such as Wisley.

Snooker

Play at Woking Snooker Centre. No previous experience needed. (Supplementary charge)

Table Tennis

A thriving, sociable group of mixed abilities.

Target Shooting

Instruction is given by fully-qualified instructors at the indoor range, in conjunction with the National Small-Bore Rifle Association. (Supplementary charge)

Tennis

Play senior doubles on a regular basis, weather permitting.

Walking

Six groups – four short, one long morning and one all-day. Mostly within 10 miles of Guildford. Members take responsibility for organizing and leading walks, and there are opportunities for pub lunches.

Visits & Outings

We offer a varied programme of visits to gardens, places and exhibitions of interest, and theatre trips, including concerts and social anthropology trips.

Who runs Guildford u3a?

Every group and activity in our programme has a Group Leader, who organises meetings and outings for our members. Without Group Leaders the u3a would not exist – they are the backbone of the organisation.

Then we have two Committees.

The Programme Planning Committee consists of mainly Group Co-ordinators, keeping on top of any changes that may happen and liaising with the Prospectus team.

The Executive Committee is made up of Trustees, a necessity for charity management, including the Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer and others.

And supporting the Committees are our IT team, the newsletter editor, monthly meeting organiser and others as required.

Contact details for Committee members are on our website.

History of u3a

It all started in France, back in 1972, when the University of Toulouse held a summer school for retired people, called L'Universite de Troisieme Age. Our lives divide into three ages – the First Age is our full-time education, the Second Age is our working life, and the Third Age is our retirement. The idea spread to other countries and by 1980 the International Association of Universities of the Third Age was established.

In the UK, discussions started in 1978 to look at setting up something similar here, but focusing on self-help rather than the French academic model. One of the early academics involved was Professor David James, of Surrey University who, in 1982, along with Bernard Buttle and Caryl Horwood, invited Margot Clegg to start up a Guildford group, known as Activities and Interests for Mature Students (AIMS).

Area Organiser:
Margot Clegg
59 Chantry View Road

By 1985 the title had changed and was known as The University of the Third Age, Guildford Area.

With Margot's enthusiasm and intellect, supported by her husband Philip, the membership grew. Initially, groups met in Margot's home, then spread to other private venues, and eventually larger, hired facilities were required. All the interest groups were run by members willing to use their working-life expertise to share with others, in line with the self-help model. The annual programme also included trips and visits, monthly meetings and annual enrolment days. Interest groups in the 1980s included Play Reading, Painting, French, Philosophy, The Novel, Poetry, Art History, Spanish, German, Ancient History, Bridge and Music. In 1986, Margot said "More than great knowledge it is people who matter ultimately. Let's keep on getting together – if we catch a few bits of new knowledge and stretch our minds in the process – all the better."

Over the next 35 years, Guildford u3a has grown enormously, currently having over 1450 members and over 100 interest groups, plus lots of outings.

Celebrations

In 2022 the national u3a organization celebrated its 40th anniversary. Guildford u3a was due to celebrate 35 years in 2020, but the Covid pandemic put those plans on hold. We will look forward to celebrating our 40th anniversary in 2025.

Council of Europe Report 1986

“Retirement is the time to preserve creativity and curiosity, the capacity to marvel, to listen and to learn.”

The u3a movement strives to achieve many of these objectives. We are curious to find out about the world and its strange ways. We preserve creativity by looking at, and doing, art; listening to, and playing, music; reading, and writing, poetry, plays and books. We stretch our minds listening to some marvellous talks. We have light-hearted occasions. We cater for all tastes. If we don't always succeed then please come and help us to improve what we offer.

How you can help

- We are all volunteers, taking on jobs because we believe in the organization and want to help.
- You could be a Group Leader. You don't need to be a teacher, but as long as you're an enthusiast about the topic, and can carry out some basic administration, then you can succeed in either taking on an existing group or starting a new one.
- You could help with making teas. u3a runs on tea and biscuits, so this is an important part of group and monthly meetings and is a great way to meet more people.
- You might have a particular talent or expertise, such as helping with IT, that we need, or you could join a committee.
- You could help with one-off events, where we need volunteers.
- Whatever you can do, please contact one of the Committee members to let us know and we will be in touch with you.

Just retired?
Think you've expired?
Feeling tired?
Get rewired! And all fired!

Are you inspired?
