

Parking at the Old Court Room

The Old Court Room is at the same place as the Assembly Rooms, North Street, Chichester

Although there is no parking nearby, the Assembly Room is approx. 150 yards from Chichester Cathedral where all the main buses stop (including the 700 coastliner buses from Portsmouth, through Emsworth, and the 54 from Petersfield) and about a 12 minute walk straight up the road from the railway station. If people do want to drive there are a couple of small car parks about 200 yards away but the biggest one, signposted from the A27, is by the Festival Theatre about 8 minutes' walk away.
