- > I'll tell you a tale, that's been recently written,
- > Of a powerful army, so Great it saved Britain,
- > They didn't have bombs and they didn't have planes,
- > They fought with their hearts and they fought with their brains,
- > They didn't have bullets, armed just with a mask,
- > We sent them to war, with one simple task,
- > To show us the way, to lead and inspire us,
- > To protect us from harm and fight off the virus,
- > It couldn't be stopped by our bullet proof vests,
- > An invisible enemy, invaded our chests,
- > So we called on our weapon, our soldiers in Blue,
- > "All Doctors, All Nurses, Your Country needs you"
- > We clapped on our streets, hearts bursting with pride,
- > As they went off to war, while we stayed inside,
- > They struggled at first, as they searched for supplies,
- > But they stared down the virus, in the whites of its eyes,
- > They leaped from the trenches and didn't think twice,
- > Some never came back, the ultimate price,
- > So tired, so weary, yet still they fought on,
- > As the virus was beaten and the battle was won,
- > The many of us, owe so much, to so few,
- > The brave and the bold, our heroes in Blue,
- > So let's line the streets and remember our debt
- > We love you, our heroes,
- > Lest we forget
