

HERTFORDSHIRE NETWORK OF U3AS

STUDY DAY

Wednesday 22nd April 2020 10.30am – 3.30pm

Doors Open 10am

Woolmer Green Village Hall – Cost £12 per person

“DIVERSITY IN LONDON”

Morning

LONDON – THE MODERN BABYLON

A highly compelling and moving film by Julien Temple, a probing and celebratory social History of London. This is the story about London’s immigrants from the early 1900’s and how they changed our City forever. With a strong musical background, a 2 hour film which will be shown in two parts with a brief interval for refreshments.

Followed By Buffet Lunch

Afternoon

We welcome Martin Spafford, a member of the Education Committee of London’s Migration Museum. The title of his talk will be “Stories from our Migration History”

Barbara Cordina – 01992 440949 – 07522 385103

barbaracordina@btinternet.com

Please complete the following and send together with your cheque, payable to “Hertfordshire Network of U3As” to Barbara Cordina, 12 Crabtree Walk, Broxbourne EN10 7NN. On receipt of this we shall register you as an attendee and look forward to seeing you on the day. Please ensure you include an email contact address so that we can confirm receipt of your booking.

Name _____ U3A _____

Email Address: _____

Telephone: _____