Capo 2nd Fret

[Intro] D A G D

[Verse 1]

D A G D
Well I danced with an American rock and roll star in Camden Lock in an overpriced bar
D A G D
She said I love rock and roll and I've come far and I said I didn't but I know who you are
D A G D
We danced for a while while Little Bob Story rocked on the stage in magnificent glory
D A G D DAGD
She was drunk and stoned and wild and free, determined to have her way with my anatomy
Bm G Bm G DAGD
But I look back and I can surely say it was me not her who was a runaway

[Verse 2]

D A G D
I backed up slowly an I hid in the loos, don't blame me mister caus I was just a kid
D A G D
I was afraid that she was getting far too pally and I thought I would end up crying rapped in some
DAGD
darken alley
D A G D
She left laughing and she gave a wave and I puffed up my chest and I felt a little brave
D A G D DAGD
But looking back I wish I'd jumped into a car along with the other junkies that streamed out of the bar
Bm G Bm G DAGD
And I looked back and all I can say is me not her who was the runaway

[Verse 3]

D A G D
Say hey kids did I ever talk about the night I ran away from Joan Jett to my own surprise
D A G D
And life would have been different well that much is clear I could have been a junkie and you wouldn't
D A G D

D A G D
