

Scam Awareness:

If you think you've been scammed, contact your bank in the first instance.

Talk to others – you are not alone and shouldn't feel embarrassed.

Useful Contacts:

NatWest Security centre – available for our customers and non-customers
natwest.com/security

Friends Against Scams website – headed by the National Trading Standards Scams Team friendsagainstscams.org.uk

Report the scam to Action fraud:
0300 123 2040 or online at www.actionfraud.police.uk

Look for the 'Little Book of Big You Scams (version 5)' online – written by the Police Service in conjunction with other expert organisations.

Get Safe On Line – an excellent source of free, unbiased security advice, categorised for easy use.
www.getsafeonline.org

haveibeenpwned.com

Check to see if your data has been lost due to a data breach

howsecureismypassword.net

A tool to help you develop strong passwords

thinkjessica.com

A true story about a victim of postal scams

National Consumer Helpline

Operated by Citizens Advice

0808 2231133 / 03454 04 05 06

Route to Trading Standards - Consumer Disputes and Scams

Government channels for reporting of Scam texts and emails:

Texts - forward to 7726

Emails – report@phishing.gov.uk

These can also be sent to the organisation they are purporting to be from

National Cyber Security Centre is the UK's independent authority on cyber security www.ncsc.gov.uk