Where the Committee determine that a general meeting is to be held using electronic means pursuant to this clause such determination shall be set out in the notice of general meeting sent to members together with details of how a member may participate in such meeting and with an explanation of the exceptional circumstances which require the general meeting to be held by electronic means only.

For the purposes of this clause “exceptional circumstances” means circumstances which in the reasonable opinion of the Committee render it impossible to hold an effective general meeting in person or by a combination of meeting in person and through electronic means.

(viii) Where a general meeting is to be held in person, the Committee may, if they deem it appropriate, set out a procedure in the notice of meeting which allows members to attend electronically if they so wish, and in such circumstances both members physically present and members present by electronic means will be considered present in person and will count towards the quorum for the relevant meeting.

(x) (a) If the general meeting is to be held solely by electronic means pursuant to clause 8(vii) the place of the meeting shall be deemed to be the Charity’s registered office.

(b) Proceedings at a general meeting held by electronic means pursuant to clause 8(vii) or a physical meeting at which procedures are put in place to allow members to attend electronically pursuant to clause 8(viii) will not be invalidated due to technical issues which prohibit members from joining such meeting electronically, so long as a sufficient number of members to form a quorum is able to join the meeting successfully.

(xi) A meeting of the Committee may be held in person or by suitable electronic means agreed by the members of the Committee in which each participant may communicate with all the other participants.

(xii) The Committee shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its meetings which should incorporate reports of any sub-committees and these minutes shall be available for inspection should a member request it.

(xiv) The Committee may appoint sub-committees consisting of at least one of its members for the purpose of performing any function or duty which in the opinion of The Committee would be more conveniently undertaken or carried out by a sub-committee, provided that all acts and proceedings of any such sub-committees shall be fully and promptly reported to The Committee.

(xv) No Committee member shall be chargeable or responsible for loss caused by any act done or omitted to be done by him/her or by any other Committee member or by reason of any mistake or omission made in good faith by any Committee member or by reason of any other matter other than willful and individual fraud or wrongdoing or actions knowingly beyond the scope of a specific authority or limit thereon on the part of The Committee member in question.
