

SUBJECT TO COVID-19 RESTRICTIONS

U3A SUMMER SCHOOL PROGRAM OF EVENTS

Welcome to the U3A National Summer Schools, Subject Summer School and Regional Summer Schools programme for 2020.

This year we have two National Schools, held in August and September, providing an exciting programme covering a wide range of subjects. In addition, the Subject school is Science Network comprising lectures, workshops and visits. Regional Summer Schools are held up and down the country

National Summer Schools

Aston University, Birmingham - 3rd - 6th August

Programme: Anthropology - The Americas 1491-93, English Poetry, International Films, Garden History, Literature, Philosophy - John Stuart Mill, Singing for Pleasure, Various Crafts, World War 2, Weather and Climate.

Royal Agricultural University, Cirencester –7th to 10th September

Programme: Art History - Manuscripts of the Anglo-Saxon Age, Cryptic Cross-words for Beginners, Creative Writing, Drama, Looking at Paintings, Mathematics, Music - The origins of popular music, Music – Recorder Ensemble, Philosophy - Intro-duction to Philosophy.

Science Network Summer School

Aston University, Birmingham - 10th - 13th August

Programme: over 12 lectures, 2 workshops and several visits.

Regional Summer Schools

6 Regional Summer Schools are also being run over the summer months.

Please visit <https://summer-schools.u3a.org.uk/> for the full programme details and to book your places